2 violence protection orders as foreign domestic violence orders.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

4 Section 1. That § 25-10-12.1 be amended to read as follows:

5 25-10-12.1. Any domestic violence protection order, or any domestic stalking or physical
6 violence protection order, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state, Indian
7 tribe, the District of Columbia, or a commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States
8 is enforceable as if the order was issued by a court in this state if all of the following
9 requirements are satisfied:

- 10 (1) The respondent received notice of the order in compliance with requirements of the 11 issuing jurisdiction;
- 12 (2) The order is in effect in the issuing jurisdiction;
- 13 (3) The issuing court had jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter;
- 14 (4) The respondent was afforded reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard sufficient
15 to protect that person's right to due process. In the case of ex parte orders, notice and

1 opportunity to be heard must have been provided within the time required by the law
2 of the issuing jurisdiction; and, in any event, within a reasonable time after the order
3 was issued, sufficient to protect the respondent's due process rights;

4 (5) If the order also provides protection for the respondent, a petition, application, or 5 other written pleading was filed with the issuing court seeking such an order and the 6 issuing court made specific findings that the respondent was entitled to the order; and

7 (6) The prohibited conduct violative of the foreign protection order could be prohibited
8 by a protection order if issued in this state.

9 Any protection order meeting the requirements of this section is a foreign domestic violence
10 protection order.
