- 17 (8) All employees of the Board of Regents;
- 18 (9) All state law enforcement officers.

19 Section 9. That § 3-12-62.1 be amended to read as follows:

20 3-12-62.1. All personnel hired on or after July 1, 1980₁ by the divisions of the Department 21 of Labor and Regulation established by §§ 61-2-10 and 61-2-10.1 shall be members of the 22 system. Any individual so employed prior to July 1, 1980₁ may elect to become a member of the 23 system, if that election is made prior to July 1, 1981. Benefits accrued to a member prior to the 24 date of such election shall be continued and ~~shall~~ may not be considered as other public benefits,

1 as defined in subdivision ~~3-12-47(50)~~ 3-12-47(49), for the purposes of calculating or offsetting
2 any benefit resulting from participation in the system. Credited service earned under the 3 retirement system provided by chapter 61-2 may not be counted for the purpose of calculation
4 of benefits under chapter 3-12. For any individual who elects to be a member of the system
5 pursuant to this section, credited service earned under the retirement system provided by chapter
6 61-2 shall be counted for the purpose of vesting under chapter 3-12 and for the eligibility
7 requirements under §§ 3-12-95 and 3-12-98, provided that contributions made to the system
8 provided under chapter 61-2 are not withdrawn.

9 Section 10. That § 3-12-72.1 be amended to read as follows:

10 3-12-72.1. No part of the fund created by this chapter may be used for any purpose other 11 than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries ~~and~~, payment of reasonable 12 administrative expenses of the system, and reimbursement of overpayments made by employers.
13 No participating unit may receive any amounts from the fund except such amounts which may 14 remain after the satisfaction of all liabilities of the system to its members.

15 Section 11. That § 3-12-82 be amended to read as follows:

16 3-12-82. If less than three years of contributory service or noncontributory service as 17 delineated in subsections (b), (e), (g), and (h) of subdivision 3-12-47(24) is acquired after a 18 retired member's reentry into covered employment, the member upon subsequent retirement 19 shall receive a refund of the member's accumulated contributions.

20 If three years or more of contributory service or noncontributory service as delineated in 21 subsections (b), (e), (g), and (h) of subdivision 3-12-47(24) are acquired after a retired member's 22 reentry into covered employment, the member upon subsequent retirement ~~shall receive~~ may 23 receive either a refund of the member's accumulated contributions or an additional allowance 24 based upon the member's credited service and final compensation earned during such reentry.

1 Only the member's credited service from the subsequent employment shall be taken into account
2 in calculating a reduction pursuant to § 3-12-106, if any, in the member's additional allowance.
3 In addition, the annual increase applied to the original allowance pursuant to § 3-12-88 shall be 4 eliminated for such period of reemployment, unless the member retired as a Class B member 5 other than a justice, judge, or magistrate judge and subsequently ~~has~~ reentered covered 6 employment as a Class A member.

7 The provisions of this section apply to any member who retired without any reduction in 8 benefits pursuant to § 3-12-106 and who reenters covered employment on or after July 1, 2004,
9 but prior to April 1, 2010.

10 Section 12. That § 3-12-130 be amended to read as follows:

11 3-12-130. A current contributing Class B member other than a justice, judge, or magistrate
12 judge, may convert credited service as a county sheriff or deputy county sheriff prior to January 13 1, 1980, or credited service as a county sheriff or deputy county sheriff while not certified from 14 January 1, 1980, to June 30, 1988, inclusive; credited service as a ~~policeman~~ police officer while 15 not certified from July 1, 1983, to June 30, 1988, inclusive; credited service as a penitentiary
16 correctional staff member prior to July 1, 1978; credited service as a conservation officer prior 17 to July 1, 1983; credited service as a parole agent prior to July 1, 1991; and credited service as 18 an air rescue firefighter prior to July 1, 1992, from credited service as a Class A member with 19 benefits provided in accordance with § 3-12-91 to credited service as a Class B member other 20 than a justice, judge, or magistrate judge, with benefits provided in accordance with § 3-12-92,
21 by election to make, or have made on the member's behalf, contributions based on the higher 22 of the member's current compensation, or the member's final average compensation calculated 23 as if the member retired on the date of election, at an actuarially-determined percentage times
24 each year of service for which the member wishes to receive such Class B credit. The provisions

1 of this section also apply to a current contributing Class B member, other than a justice, judge, 2 or magistrate judge, who previously has purchased equivalent public service pursuant to the 3 provisions of § 3-12-84.

4 Payment of a deposit with the system for the conversion of credited service in accordance 5 with this section shall be determined and due at the time the notice of intention to make the 6 payment is received by the system. The amount due may be paid by periodic level installments
7 over a period of up to ten years, the value of which, if discounted for interest at the assumed rate
8 of return, is equal to the amount due at the date of the notice. If a member dies before 9 completion of the installment payments, the surviving spouse may complete the payments due 10 the system, but unless the payments are being made by a participating unit, the amount shall be 11 paid in full within ninety days of the member's death or retirement. If the periodic payments are 12 not completed or paid when due, the administrator may make a pro rata adjustment to the 13 credited service, benefits payable under this chapter or schedule of payments to allow for the 14 default.

15 If the credited service of any member or group of members becomes Class B credited service
16 on a prospective basis on or after July 1, 1993, the prior credited service as a Class A member
17 may be converted to Class B credited service in accordance with this section. If a jailer becomes 18 a Class B member other than a justice, judge, or magistrate judge pursuant to subdivision 3-12-
19 47(25) or subdivision 3-12-47(55), the jailer is eligible to convert prior credited service as a 20 jailer under this section.

21 Section 13. That § 3-12-143 be amended to read as follows:

22 3-12-143. For the first thirty-six months of a disability allowance provided by this chapter,
23 the maximum amount that a member may receive in any calendar year from the disability
24 allowance and earned income, as defined in § 32(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,

1 is one hundred percent of the member's final average compensation. Starting with the 2 thirty-seventh month of such disability allowance, the maximum amount that a member may 3 receive in any calendar year from disability allowances provided by the federal Social Security 4 Act equal to the primary insurance amount, the disability allowance provided by this chapter and 5 earned income, as defined in § 32(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, is one hundred
6 percent of the member's final average compensation. The maximum amount shall be indexed 7 for each full fiscal year during which the member is eligible for such disability allowance by the 8 improvement factor defined in subdivision ~~3-12-47(42)~~ 3-12-47(41). Any amount exceeding this 9 maximum amount shall reduce each monthly disability allowance payable pursuant to § 3-12-99 10 in the following fiscal year on a pro rata basis.

11 Any member eligible to receive a disability allowance shall report to the system in writing
12 any earned income of the member. The report shall be filed with the system no later than May 13 thirty-first following the end of each calendar year in which a disability allowance is paid. A 14 disabled member may file a signed copy of the member's individual income tax return in lieu 15 of the report. No report or return need be filed for the calendar year in which the member dies
16 or converts to a normal or early retirement benefit under this chapter. The disability allowance
17 of any member failing to file a report or return as required in this section shall be suspended
18 until the report or return is filed. The reduction may occur, however, only if a disability 19 allowance is being paid by the system, but may not reduce the disability allowance below the 20 minimum provided for in § 3-12-99. For members with a disability in effect before July 1, 1995, 21 the first report is due on or before May 31, 1996.

22 This section applies to any member receiving or entitled to receive a disability allowance 23 pursuant to this chapter.

24 Section 14. That § 3-13-55 be amended to read as follows:

3-13-55. The definitions contained in § 3-12-47 apply to this chapter unless the context clearly otherwise requires. In addition the following terms mean:

(1) ~~"Plan," the South Dakota deferred compensation plan created pursuant to this chapter; and~~

~~—(2)—~~"Accumulated deferred compensation," compensation deferred by a participant in the plan, plus any investment return thereon;

(2) "Plan," the South Dakota deferred compensation plan created pursuant to this chapter; and

(3) "Plan year," a calendar year ending on December thirty-first.

Section 15. That § 3-13A-15 be amended to read as follows:

3-13A-15. A participant may designate a beneficiary to receive the participant's benefits under the program in case of the death of the participant. If no beneficiary is designated or the beneficiary has predeceased the participant, the participant's benefits shall be paid as follows:

(1) To the participant's surviving spouse;

(2) If there is no surviving spouse, then to all surviving children of the participant, irrespective of age, on a share-alike basis; or

(3) If there is no surviving spouse and there are no surviving children, then to the participant's estate.

Section 16. That § 3-6A-38.2 be amended to read as follows:

3-6A-38.2. In resolving a grievance, the commission may reinstate an employee who has been disciplined without good cause. If reinstatement is ordered by the commission, the order shall include one or more of the following forms of relief: an award of back pay, an award of back benefits, placement in the same position and location that the employee held before the discipline, or placement in a comparable position and location that the employee held before the

1 discipline. Any award of back pay and benefits shall include the employer's contribution
2 pursuant to § 3-12-71. Any award of back pay and benefits which adversely affects an agency's 3 budget shall be considered advisory and submitted by the affected agency to the committee
4 created by chapter 4-8A or the next session of the Legislature.
