

2021 South Dakota Legislature

Senate Commemoration 803

Introduced by: Senators Nesiba, Crabtree, Duvall, Schoenbeck, V. J. Smith, Tobin, and Zikmund and Representatives Duba, Bartels, Deutsch, Lana Greenfield, Healy, Hoffman, Keintz, and Perry

1 A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, honoring and commending the educators of 2 South Dakota for their service and dedication in unprecedented times.

3 WHEREAS, schools are the backbone of our democracy, providing young people with the 4 knowledge and skills to instill the values of freedom, equality, and civic duty; and

5 WHEREAS, all education employees—be they teachers, instructors of higher education, 6 preschool educators, education support professionals and paraprofessionals, specialized 7 instructional support personnel, district and school level administrators, school boards, or 8 substitute teachers—work tirelessly to provide high-quality instruction and safe, healthy 9 learning environments for South Dakota's students, even in unprecedented times; and

10 WHEREAS, educators devoted countless hours to continue teaching our young people, 11 learning new and innovative ways to develop and deliver learning that included, not only 12 academics, but also character, creativity, and social-emotional learning; and

13 WHEREAS, educators engaged our families in every community to partner and support 14 their children's learning and growth, both when learning in-person and remotely, and 15 collaborated with community partners to continue to meet the basic needs of our children, 16 especially those experiencing poverty or food insecurity;

17 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Ninety-Sixth Legislature of the State 18 of South Dakota, that the Legislature honors and commends all South Dakota educators and 19 educational staff for their dedicated service to our students and our communities in times of 20 uncertainty and hazard caused by the COVID-19 viral pandemic.
