19 The Supreme Court shall establish rules, pursuant to § 16-3-1, to develop a 20 graduated sanctions and incentives procedure and grid to guide court services officers in 21 determining the appropriate response to a violation of terms or conditions of probation in 22 iuvenile cases. If the graduated sanctions program includes detention, a stay may not 23 exceed forty eight hours, and may not exceed twenty four hours for children in need of 24 supervision pursuant to § 26-8B-3. The Unified Judicial System shall collect data related 25 to the use of sanctions, grid compliance and program outcomes, and shall include a 26 process for reviewing sanctions that are challenged by the juvenile. The system of 27 graduated sanctions shall be created with the following objectives: 28 (1) Responding to violations of probation quickly, consistently, and proportionally; 29 (2) Reducing the time and resources expended by the court to respond to violations; 30 and 31 (3) Reducing the likelihood of a new delinquent act.

32 Section 7. That § 26-7A-126 be REPEALED:

1	The following allegations of delinquency and children in need of supervision shall
2	be treated as juvenile cited violations by law enforcement:
3	(1) Petty theft in the second degree pursuant to § 22-30A-17.3;
4	(2) Intentional damage to property, four hundred dollars or less, pursuant to § 22-34-
5	1;
6	(3) Purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverage by person under
7	twenty-one years pursuant to § 35-9-2 in accordance with subdivision 26-8B-2(5);
8	and
9	(4) Truancy pursuant to subdivision 26-8B-2(1).
10	The issuing officer shall notify the child and the child's parent, guardian, or
11	custodian that a hearing on the citation for a cited violation shall be held before a judicial
12	circuit court judge within ten days of issuance of the citation or on the next available court
13	date and be treated as a confidential juvenile matter. The hearing shall be held pursuant
14	to § 26-7A-36 and the case records shall be treated as confidential consistent with the
15	provisions of §§ 26-7A-114, 26-7A-115, 26-7A-116, 26-7A-120, and 26-7A-27. A cited
16	violation is not an adjudication or a child in need of supervision or delinquency proceeding.
17	In lieu of a citation, pursuant to subdivision 26-7A-126(4), a school official may file a
18	report with the state's attorney. A report may also be filed with the state's attorney in lieu
19	of a citation if the conduct occurs in conjunction with another offense that is not subject
20	to the juvenile cited violation process.
21	Section 8. That § 26-7A-127 be REPEALED:

22	If a state's attorney is informed that a citation or report has been issued for a
23	juvenile cited violation, the state's attorney may take any action permitted pursuant to
24	$\frac{1}{2}$ 26-7A-10, except that a state's attorney may only file a petition pursuant to subdivision
25	26-7A-10(5) if:

- 26 (1) The child is cited or a report is filed pursuant to subdivision 26-7A-126(1), (2), or 27 (4); or
- 28 (2) The child is cited pursuant to subdivision 26-7A-126(3), and has two or more prior 29 judgments for the same violation.

30 If the state's attorney intends to proceed on a petition for a violation of the 31 provisions in § 26-7A-126 pursuant to subdivision (1) or (2) in this section, the provisions 32 of § 26-7A-11.1 apply.

33 Section 9. That § 26-7A-128 be REPEALED:

1 If the state's attorney elects to proceed on the citation pursuant to subdivision 26-2 7A-10(3), the child shall be asked for an admission or denial of the alleged violation. If 3 the child admits to the violation, the court shall accept the admission and enter a judgment 4 pursuant to § 26-7A-129. If the child denies committing the violation, the case may be 5 tried according to procedure adopted by the presiding judge of each judicial circuit and 6 approved by the Supreme Court, but a jury trial may not be granted.

7 If the child fails to appear in court at the time set in the citation or set by 8 subsequent postponement, the court may either issue a summons to appear and set a 9 new date for hearing to show cause, the court may consider that failure to appear 10 constitutes an admission to the allegations contained in the complaint and may accordingly 11 enter a judgment for payment, or may grant permission to the state's attorney to file a 12 petition pursuant to subdivision 26-7A-10(5).

If the child fails to comply with the terms of the judgment, the court may issue a summons to appear and show cause, or assess against the child's parents or guardians the amount of the citation and any restitution owed pursuant to § 26-7A-129 or may grant permission to the state's attorney to file a petition pursuant to subdivision 26-7A-10(5).

17 Section 10. That § 26-7A-129 be REPEALED:

18	If a child is found to be in violation of the citation, the court shall enter a judgment
19	against the child for one or more of the following:
20	(1) Require the child to complete a court-approved juvenile diversion program or
21	informal adjustment administered by a court services officer;
22	(2) A fine and court costs not to exceed one hundred dollars;
23	(3) Community service;
24	(4) Restitution as defined in subdivision 23A-28-2(4) and as determined appropriate by
25	the court; or
26	(5) Suspension or revocation of the child's driving privilege if the judgment is entered
27	on a violation pursuant to subdivision 26-7A-126(3).
28	The court may set a hearing to review compliance with the judgment. If a child is
29	unable to pay a fine, court costs, or restitution as ordered by the court, any party may
30	request that the court order community service in lieu of the monetary judgment. At no
31	time may a court order a child to probation or detention upon entry of a judgment on a
32	cited violation. A judgment on a cited violation shall be a confidential matter pursuant to
33	subsection 15-15A-7(p) but the state's attorney may maintain a nonpublic record of the
34	iudament for purposes of determining eligibility under § 26-7A-127.

Section 11. That § 26-8B-1 be AMENDED:

2 26-8B-1. It is the purpose of this chapter, in conjunction with chapter 26-7A, to 3 establish an effective state and local system for children in need of supervision, including 4 a focus on community-based rehabilitation.

5 Section 12. That § 26-8B-4 be AMENDED:

6 26-8B-4. Following adjudication of a child as a child in need of supervision, the 7 court may continue the case and may require a court services officer to present to the 8 court a plan of disposition. If a community response team as defined in § 26 8D-1 has 9 been established, prior to any disposition to the Department of Corrections, the court may 10 seek a recommendation for a viable community alternative disposition from the team. If 11 the team is unable to provide any recommendation within seven days of the referral, the 12 court may exercise its discretion and make a disposition decision without the input of the 13 team, pursuant to § 26-8B-6. In all cases, the court may adopt the recommendation of 14 the team in part, in full, or reject the recommendation of the team in its entirety.

Section 13. That § 26-8B-6 be AMENDED:

26-8B-6. If a child has been adjudicated as a child in need of supervision, the court shall enter a decree of disposition according to the least restrictive alternative available in keeping with the best interests of the child. The decree shall contain one or more of the following:

- (1) The court may place the child on probation pursuant to § 26-8B-8 or under protective supervision in the custody of one or both parents, guardian, custodian, relative, or another suitable person under conditions imposed by the court;
- 23 The court may require as a condition of probation that the child-participate in a (2) 24 supervised community service report for assignment to a supervised work 25 program, provided the child is not placed in a detention facility and is not deprived 26 of the schooling that is appropriate to the child's age, needs, and specific 27 rehabilitative goals. The supervised-community service work program shall be of a 28 constructive nature designed to promote rehabilitation, shall be appropriate to the 29 age level and physical ability of the child, and shall be combined with counseling 30 by a court services officer or other guidance personnel. The supervised community 31 service program assignment shall be made for a period of time consistent with the 32 child's best interests, but may not exceed ninety days;

1	(3)	If the court finds that the child has violated a valid court order, the court may place
2		the child in a detention facility for not more than-seven ninety days, including any
3		period of temporary custody pursuant to § 26-8B-3, for purposes of disposition if:
4		(a) The child is not deprived of the schooling that is appropriate for the child's
5		age, needs, and specific rehabilitative goals;
6		(b) The child had a due process hearing before the order was issued; and
7		(c) A plan of disposition from a court services officer is provided to the court-
8		The issued order must identify the violated court order, determine detention is the
9		best available placement, specify the length of time the child is to be held
10		in detention, and outline the plan for release of the child from detention;
11	(4)	The court may commit the child to the Department of Corrections for placement in
12		a juvenile correctional facility, foster home, group home, group care center,
13		residential treatment center, or other community-based services, if those
14		community-based services were not provided prior to commitment, pursuant to
15		chapter 26-11A. Prior to placement in a juvenile correctional facility, an interagency
16		team comprised of representatives from the Department of Human Services,
17		Department of Social Services, Department of Education, the Department of
18		Corrections, and the Unified Judicial System shall make a written finding that
19		placement at a Department of Corrections facility is the least restrictive placement
20		commensurate with the best interests of the child. Subsequent placement in any
21		other Department of Corrections facility may be authorized without an interagency
22		review;
23	(5)	_The court may require the child to pay restitution, as defined in § 23A-28-2 and
24		under conditions set by the court if payment can be enforced without serious
25		hardship or injustice to the child;
26	(5)(6) The court may place a child in an alternative educational program;
27	(6) (7) The court may order the child to be examined and treated at the Human Services
28		Center;
29	(7) (8	8) The court may impose a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars;
30	(8)	9) The court may order the suspension or revocation of the child's right to apply for
31		a driving privilege , suspend or revoke an existing driving privilege, or restrict the
32		privilege in such manner as the court sees fit or as required by § 32-12-52.4,
33		including requiring that financial responsibility be proved and maintained; or

1	(9)(10) The court may assess or charge the same costs and fees as permitted by
2	§§ 16-2-41, 23-3-52, 23A-27-26, 23A-28B-42, and 23A-27-27 against the child,
3	parent, guardian, custodian, or other party responsible for the child ; or
4	(10) The court may only commit a child to the Department of Corrections if the judge
5	finds that:
6	(a) No viable alternatives exist;
7	(b) The Department of Corrections is the least restrictive alternative; and
8	(c) The court finds from evidence presented at the dispositional hearing or from
9	the pre-dispositional report that the youth presents a significant risk of
10	physical harm to another person.
11	Any finding made pursuant to this section shall be made in the written decree.
12	After disposition, but prior to placement in a juvenile correctional facility, a state
13	interagency team comprised of representatives from the Department of Human Services,
14	the Department of Social Services, the Department of Education, the Department of
15	Corrections, and the Unified Judicial System shall make a written finding that placement
16	at a Department of Corrections facility is the least restrictive placement commensurate
17	with the best interests of the child. Subsequent placement in any other Department of
18	Corrections facility may be authorized without an interagency review.
19	No adjudicated child in need of supervision may be incarcerated in a detention
20	facility except as provided in subdivision (3) or (4) of this section and § 26-7A-20.
21	Section 14. That § 26-8B-8 be AMENDED:

- 22 26-8B-8. The terms and, conditions, and duration of probation of a child in need
 23 of supervision shall be specified by rules or orders of the court and by a court services 24 officer.
- The duration of juvenile probation shall be specified by order of the court but may not exceed six months unless:
- 27 (1) The child is placed in the intensive juvenile probation program; or
- 28 (2) The child's probation is extended as provided under this section.
- If the child is placed on intensive juvenile probation, the duration of probation ordered by the court may be up to twelve months.
- 31 If the child is placed on juvenile probation, a court services officer may request two 32 extensions up to six months each or one extension up to six months for intensive juvenile 33 probation. The court may authorize the same in accordance with Unified Judicial System
 34 procedure if the extension is necessary for the child to complete evidence-based treatment

1 as required by the case plan. If evidence based treatment is not available, an extension 2 may be granted if the youth is engaged in alternative court approved treatment that will 3 not be completed before the previously ordered term of probation expires.

The total duration of probation, including juvenile intensive probation and 5 extensions in all cases, may not exceed eighteen months unless the court provides written 6 authorization to allow a child to complete evidence-based treatment that will not be 7 completed before probation expires. Probation may not be extended solely to collect 8 restitution. If probation is terminated with restitution owing, Unified Judicial System 9 procedure may govern the collection.

10 Each child placed on probation shall be given a written statement of the terms and conditions of probation and the probation policy. The terms and conditions, as well as the 11 12 probation extension policy, shall be explained to the child.

13 The court shall review the terms and conditions of probation and the progress of 14 each child placed on probation at least once every six months. The court may release a 15 child from probation or modify the terms and conditions of the child's probation at any 16 time, but any child who has complied satisfactorily with the terms, conditions, and 17 duration of probation shall be released from probation and the jurisdiction of the court 18 terminated. If the duration of probation previously prescribed has expired, the court shall 19 release the child from probation and terminate jurisdiction.

20 Section 15. That § 26-8B-9 be AMENDED:

21 26-8B-9. The following provisions apply if the child is alleged to have violated the 22 terms and conditions of probation and a formal petition is filed with the court:

- 23 The court shall set a hearing on the alleged violation and shall give five days' notice (1)24 to the child, to the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, and to any other parties 25 to the proceedings;
- 26 (2) The child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian shall be given a written 27 statement concerning the alleged violation;
- 28 The child may be represented by legal counsel at the probation violation hearing (3) 29 and the child is entitled to the issuance of compulsory process for the attendance 30 of witnesses;
- If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the child violated the 31 (4) 32 terms and conditions of probation, the court may modify the terms and conditions 33 of probation, revoke probation, or take other action-as permitted by this chapter 34 or chapter 26-7A, according to the least restrictive alternative which is in the best interests of the child-and, the public, except commitment to the Department of Corrections. The court may only commit a child to the Department of Corrections if the court finds that the violation committed constitutes a new law violation and finds that the aggravated circumstances provided in subdivision 26-8B-6(10) exist and the state; and

- 6 (5) For the purposes of this section, a new law violation is defined as delinquent
 7 behavior pursuant to § 26-8C-2, a Class 1 misdemeanor violation of title 32, or a 8 violation of § 32-23-21; and
- 9 (6) If the court finds that the child did not violate the terms and conditions of probation
 10 as alleged, the court shall dismiss the proceedings and continue the child on 11 probation under the terms, and conditions, and duration previously prescribed. If 12 the duration of probation previously prescribed has expired, the court shall release
 13 the child from probation and terminate jurisdiction.
- 14 Section 16. That § 26-8C-1 be AMENDED:

26-8C-1. It is the purpose of this chapter, in conjunction with chapter 26-7A, to establish an effective state and local system for delinquent children-including a focus on community-based rehabilitation.

18 Section 17. That § 26-8C-5 be AMENDED:

19 26-8C-5. Following adjudication of a child as a delinguent child, the court may 20 continue the case and may require a court services officer to present to the court a plan 21 of disposition. Where a community response team as defined in § 26-8D-1 has been 22 established, prior to any disposition to the Department of Corrections, the court may seek 23 a recommendation for a viable community alternative disposition from the team. If the 24 team is unable to provide any recommendation within seven days of the referral, the 25 disposing court may exercise its discretion and make a disposition decision without the 26 input of the team, pursuant to § 26-8C-7. In each case, the court may adopt the 27 recommendation of the team in part, in full, or reject the recommendation of the team in 28 its entirety.

29 Section 18. That § 26-8C-7 be AMENDED:

1 26-8C-7. If a child has been adjudicated as a delinguent child, the court shall enter 2 a decree of disposition according to the least restrictive alternative available in keeping 3 with the best interests of the child. The decree shall contain one or more of the following: 4 The court may require the child to pay restitution, as defined in subdivision 23A-(1)5 28-2(4) and under conditions set by the court, if payment can be enforced without 6 serious hardship or injustice to the child; 7 (2) The court may make any one or more of the dispositions in § 26-8B-6, except that 8 a delinguent child may be incarcerated in a detention facility established pursuant 9 to provisions of chapter 26-7A for not more than ninety days, which may be in 10 addition to any period of temporary custody; 11 (3) The court may impose a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars; 12 (3)(4) The court may place the child on probation under the supervision of a court services 13 officer or another designated individual pursuant to § 26-8C-14; 14 (4) The court may require a child. The child may be required as a condition of probation 15 to participate in report for assignment to a supervised community service work 16 program, if the child is not deprived of the schooling that is appropriate for the 17 child's age, needs, and specific rehabilitative goals. The supervised community 18 service work program shall be of a constructive nature designed to promote 19 rehabilitation, appropriate to the age level and physical ability of the child, and 20 shall be combined with counseling by the court services officer or other guidance 21 personnel. The supervised community service work program assignment shall be 22 made for a period of time consistent with the child's best interests, but for not 23 more than ninety days; 24 The court may commit the child to the Department of Corrections; (5) 25 (6) The court may place the child at the Human Services Center for examination and 26 treatment; 27 (6)(7) The court may place the child in a detention facility for not more than ninety days, 28 which may be in addition to any period of temporary custody; 29 (7)(8) The court may place the child in an alternative educational program; 30 (9) The court may order the suspension or revocation of the child's right to apply for 31 a driving privilege, suspend or revoke an existing driving privilege, or restrict the 32 privilege in the manner the court sees fit, including requiring that financial 33 responsibility be proved and maintained; or

1	(9)(10) The court may assess or charge costs and fees permitted by §§ 16-2-41, 23-

3	custodian, or other party responsible for the child ; or
4	(10) The court may only commit a child to the Department of Corrections if the judge
5	finds that:
6	(a) No viable alternative exists; and
7	(b) The Department of Corrections is the least restrictive alternative; and one of
8	the following:
9	(i) The child is currently adjudicated delinquent for an offense eligible
10	for transfer proceedings pursuant to § 26-11-3.1; the child is
11	currently adjudicated delinquent for a crime of violence pursuant to
12	subdivision 22-1-2(9), sex offense pursuant to § 22-24B-1, felony

14	the second degree pursuant to § 22-32-3; or the court finds from
15	evidence presented at the dispositional hearing or from the pre-
16	dispositional report that the youth presents a significant risk of
17	physical harm to another person; or
18	(ii) The court finds from evidence presented at the dispositional hearing
19	or from the pre-dispositional report that the child is at high risk for
20	re-offense based on a validated risk assessment, and the child has

4 order by the court may be up to twelve months.

5 If the child is placed on juvenile probation, a court services officer may request two 6 extensions up to six months each or one extension up to six months for intensive juvenile 7 probation. The court may authorize the same in accordance with Unified Judicial System 8 procedure if the extension is necessary for the child to engage in evidence-based 9 treatment as required by the case plan. If evidence-based treatment is not available, an 10 extension may be granted if the youth is engaged in alternative court-approved treatment 11 that will not be completed before the previously ordered term of probation expires.

12 The total duration of probation, including juvenile intensive probation and any 13 extension may not exceed eighteen months unless the court provides written authorization 14 to allow a child to complete evidence-based treatment that will not be completed before 15 probation expires. Probation may not be extended solely to collect restitution. If probation 16 is terminated with restitution owing, the Unified Judicial System procedure may govern 17 the collection.

Each child placed on probation shall be given a written statement of the terms and conditions of probation, and the probation extension policy. The terms and conditions, as well as the probation extension policy, shall be explained to the child.

The court shall review the terms and conditions of probation and the progress of each child placed on probation at least once every six months. The court may release a child from probation or modify the terms and conditions of the child's probation at any time, but any child who has complied satisfactorily with the terms, conditions, and duration of probation shall be released from probation and the jurisdiction of the court terminated. If the duration of probation previously prescribed has expired, the court shall release the child from probation and terminate jurisdiction.

28 Section 20. That § 26-8C-15 be AMENDED:

29 26-8C-15. The following provisions apply if the child is alleged to have violated 30 the terms and conditions of probation and a formal allegation of a probation violation is 31 filed:

 of witnesses;
- 6 (4) If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the child violated the 7 terms and conditions of probation, the court may modify the terms and conditions 8 of probation, revoke probation, or take other action as permitted by this chapter 9 or chapter 26-7A which is in the best interests of the child and the public, except 10 commitment to the Department of Corrections. The court may only commit a child to the Department of Corrections if the court finds that the violation committed 11 12 constitutes a new law violation and finds that the aggravated circumstances as 13 provided in subdivision 26-8C-7(10) exist; and
- 14 (5) For the purposes of this section, new law violation is defined as delinquent behavior pursuant to § 26-8C-2, a Class 1 misdemeanor violation of title 32, or a violation of § 32-23-21; and
- 17 (6) If the court finds that the child did not violate the terms and conditions of probation
 18 as alleged, the court shall dismiss the proceedings and continue the child on 19 probation under the terms, and conditions, and duration previously prescribed. If
 20 the duration of probation previously prescribed has expired, the court shall release
 21 the child from probation and terminate jurisdiction.

1 The Department of Social Services shall collect data, in the aggregate and by 2 provider, on the number of juveniles referred to treatment, the number and percent of 3 juveniles completing treatment and not completing treatment for juveniles receiving 4 treatment paid for by the Department of Social Services pursuant to this chapter. Any recipient of community service, 18 described in §§ 26-8C-7 and 26-8B-6, does not have to provide the child with reemployment assistance insurance pursuant to title 61 nor with workers' compensation 19 20 insurance pursuant to title 62. Each recipient and the recipient's officers, agents, and 21 employees are immune from any cause of action for civil damages brought by the child, 22 parents, guardians, or any third party if the cause of action arises from any act of 23 commission or omission by the recipient or any of its officers, agents, or employees or 24 any act of commission or omission by the child and the acts arise out of or are in 25 connection with a community service program, except if the cause of action is the result 26 of gross negligence or willful and wanton misconduct of the recipient or its officers, agents, 27 or employees and except to the extent that the recipient has purchased liability insurance. 28 Nothing in this section relieves any individual child from responsibility for the child's 29 individual acts.

21	§ 26-7A-11.1. The Unified Judicial System shall report semiannually to the oversight
22	council the number of children summoned to court on a juvenile cited violation pursuant

32 Section 37. That § 26-8D-17 be REPEALED:

- The Department of Corrections, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 26-11A and § 26-8C-7 or 26-8B-6, may place a child in a group care center operated and maintained by a nonstate entity only in accordance with a performance-based reimbursement rate structure as provided in the provider contract and as provided by this section.
- 5 If a provider is able to substantially accomplish the treatment goals and release a 6 child from group care within the performance expectation period, a performance-based 7 reimbursement payment shall be included in the payment allocation. The maximum 8 performance-based reimbursement payment shall be allocated when a provider is able to 9 substantially accomplish the treatment goals and release a child within three months. A 10 diminished performance-based reimbursement payment shall be allocated when a 11 provider is able to substantially accomplish the treatment goals and release a child in more 12 than three months but less than four months. The performance-based reimbursement 13 payment is in addition to the provider reimbursement rate as established by the 14 Department of Social Services.
- 15 The Department of Corrections shall determine the need for placement in a group 16 care facility upon admission and review the placement monthly thereafter. Upon finding 17 that the child is no longer in need of placement, the child shall be released to aftercare 18 pursuant to § 26-11A-12. If the child cannot be released to aftercare at no fault of the 19 provider, a performance-based reimbursement payment shall be added to the payment 20 allocation as long as the provider otherwise qualifies for that payment.
- If a provider terminates a child prior to substantial completion of the treatment goals and the Department of Corrections transfers the child to another facility, the transferring provider does not qualify for a performance-based payment under this section for that child.
- Juvenile corrections facilities maintained and operated by the Department of Corrections shall design and operate programs to achieve substantial accomplishment of treatment goals and the release to aftercare within three months.
- 28 Specialized transition services are exempt from the performance-based 29 reimbursement rate structure.
- 30 After January 1, 2019, the Department of Corrections may promulgate rules,
- 31 pursuant to chapter 1-26, to continue or create additional or alternative performance-
- 32 based reimbursement period timeframes.
- 33 Section 38. That § 26-8D-18 be REPEALED:

- The Department of Corrections, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 26-11A and § 26-8C-7 or 26-8B-6, may place a child in a residential treatment center or intensive residential treatment center only in accordance with a performance-based reimbursement rate structure as provided in the provider contract and provided by this section.
- 5 If a provider is able to substantially accomplish the treatment goals and release a 6 child from residential or intensive residential treatment within the performance 7 expectation period, a performance-based reimbursement payment shall be added to the 8 payment allocation. For those providers that substantially meet the treatment goals and 9 release within three months, a maximum performance based reimbursement payment 10 shall be added to the payment allocation. For those providers that substantially meet the 11 treatment goals and release within five, seven, or nine months, a diminished performance-12 based reimbursement payment, which decreases as length of stay increases, shall be 13 added to the payment allocation.
- 14 The provider contracts shall provide how the Department of Corrections may use 15 state general fund dollars in the performance expectation allocation. The performance-16 based reimbursement payment is in addition to the provider reimbursement rate as 17 established by the Department of Social Services.
- 18 The Department of Corrections shall evaluate monthly the need for continued 19 placement in a residential treatment center or intensive residential treatment center. Upon 20 a finding that the child is no longer in need of placement, the child shall be released to 21 aftercare pursuant to § 26-11A-12 or specialized transition services. If the child cannot be 22 released to aftercare at no fault of the provider, a performance based reimbursement 23 payment shall be added to the payment allocation as long as the provider otherwise 24 qualifies for that payment.
- If a provider terminates a child prior to substantial completion of the treatment goals and the Department of Corrections transfers the child to another facility, the transferring provider does not qualify for additional performance-based reimbursement payment under this section for that child.
- After January 1, 2019, the Department of Corrections may promulgate rules, pursuant to chapter 1-26, to continue or create additional or alternative performance based reimbursement period timeframes.

32 Section 39. That § 26-8D-19 be REPEALED:
