

2022 South Dakota Legislature

House Commemoration 8016

Introduced by: Representative Pourier

1 A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring the work of Beverly Warne.

2 WHEREAS, Beverly Warne was born in Pine Ridge, South Dakota, and is an enrolled 3 member of the Oglala Lakota Tribe. She graduated from St. John's McNamara School of 4 Nursing in Rapid City, South Dakota, and earned her Baccalaureate and Master's Degrees in 5 Nursing from Arizona State University; and

6 WHEREAS, Ms. Warne has served as a nurse for public, private, and military hospitals, in 7 international service, in public health and with the Indian Health Service, in home and school 8 settings, and as a faculty at Mesa Community College and Arizona State University, where 9 she taught nursing and cultural courses that brought a special perspective to the program
10 given her cultural background and lifestyle. Her personal history helped her students better 11 understand challenges of forced assimilation as well as the courage and spirit that enabled 12 her to succeed in her chosen profession; and

13 WHEREAS, Ms. Warne served as the Director of the American Indian Students United for 14 Nursing Program at Arizona State University, an Indian Health Service Scholarship Program.
15 There she provided academic, financial, cultural, and social support as well as mentorship for 16 American Indian nursing students. Upon return to South Dakota, Ms. Warne helped lead the 17 creation of the South Dakota State University (SDSU) Native American Nursing Education
18 Center. Within the SDSU College of Nursing, she now serves in Rapid City as a 19 Coordinator/Mentor/Instructor within the Native American Nursing Education Center; and

20 WHEREAS, over the course of her career, Ms. Warne has received numerous awards and 21 recognitions for her excellence in nursing and mentorship: from the Arizona Public Health
22 Association, Native American Alumni Association, the Phoenix Indian Center, and Rapid City
23 Community Conversations. In 2005, she was inducted into the Nursing Hall of Fame, and 24 received the mentorship award for the Global Nursing Foundation in 2006. More recently, Ms.
25 Warne received the Spirit of Dakota award in 2018:

1 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Ninety-Seventh Legislature of the 2 State of South Dakota, that Beverly Warne is a South Dakota treasure and an invaluable elder
3 and leader to not only the Native community, but all of South Dakota.
