14

Gracious God.....You are the God of creation-the God of New Life- the God of forgiveness, love, and mercy. We pray that our work done here, in this legislative body, was accomplished with justice and care. We pray for Your healing presence in the lives of everyone affected by the situation that has led to this day. We pray for both Joseph Boever's family, and Jason Ravnsborg and his family in these difficult days of grief. Grief is an emotion that comes for different reasons and different circumstances for everyone involved, but nevertheless, the emotions felt at this time are only fully known by You, Oh Lord.

16

18

Help all of us, turn to Your kingdom's work. Help all of us trust in your ways. Help all of us confess our own sins and brokenness and respond to this work with humility, self-reflection, and diligence to Your Word, and Your Word alone. Forgive any of us who take pride and place ego ahead of any of the necessary work that we have participated in.

19

20

21

22

23

Remind each of us that we are called to live above reproach in the servant work that we have been elected to do. Give us your countenance and grace as we move forward into the weeks and months of work that lies ahead for each of us as we serve our constituents. Bless us Lord with courage to live faithful lives in response to what Your Son accomplished for each of us on the cross. It is in Christ's name we pray.

24

Thanks be to God...Amen.
