

2023 South Dakota Legislature

Senate Commemoration 815

Introduced by: Senator Foster

1 A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Recognizing and honoring the twenty-fifth
 2 anniversary of the First Peoples Fund.

3 WHEREAS, the First Peoples Fund was founded in 1995 by Jennifer Easton as a donor-advised fund
 4 of the Tides Foundation. In 2003, the First Peoples Fund was established as a nonprofit organization
 5 headquartered in Rapid City, SD. The mission of the First Peoples Fund is to honor and support the 6 Collective Spirit of First Peoples artists and culture bearers. The First Peoples Fund works with American 7 Indian, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian artists and culture bearers in South Dakota and across the 8 country; and

9 WHEREAS, the First Peoples Fund helps Native communities heal and thrive by supporting cultural 10 practice and entrepreneurship, including community and youth development programs, training, 11 mentorship, grants, awards, and fellowships. The First Peoples Fund's theory of change is a relationship-12 based, collective system of local and regional arts ecosystems rooted in ancestral knowledge, inclusive
 13 of environment, spirit, people, and lifeways. The First Peoples Fund's long-term goal is to see thriving 14 Indigenous arts ecologies everywhere that lift culture bearers, tradition keepers, and artists as 15 transformative community leaders and voices leading community change; and

16 WHEREAS, the First Peoples Fund and local partners are making a significant impact in this state
 17 through artist-centered programs on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation, including the Rolling Rez Arts 18 bus, Oglala Lakota Artspace, and Dances with Words youth development program; and

19 WHEREAS, the Rolling Rez Arts is a state-of-the-art mobile art space, business training center, and 20 mobile bank that travels across the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. In 2016, the Rolling Rez Arts began 21 delivering art, business, retail, and banking services that were previously inaccessible to artists and 22 culture bearers living and working on the reservation. The Rolling Rez Arts is the result of a partnership
 23 with Artspace, Lakota Funds, Lakota Federal Credit Union, and nonprofit partners and foundation 24 supporters, all coming together to infuse new energy into the local creative economy; and

25 WHEREAS, the Oglala Lakota Artspace is the first community arts facility on the Pine Ridge Indian 26 Reservation in Kyle, SD, that fosters a collaborative and intergenerational environment where artists
 27 can learn, share, and grow their businesses. The facility features a recording studio, classroom, artist
 28 studios, and outdoor market space. The Oglala Lakota Artspace Artist-in-Residence Program supports

1 Oglala Lakota culture bearers and artists working in the continuum of Lakota art, developing their 2 practice, exploring connections, and building collaborations with local artists and community; and

3 WHEREAS, the Dances with Words program is a youth development initiative of the First Peoples
4 Fund that works with young people, adult mentors, high schools, and nonprofit partners to empower 5 participants to become engaged students and community leaders through literary work, spoken word, 6 and other art forms:

7 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Ninety-Eighth Legislature of the State of South
8 Dakota, that the Legislature recognizes and honors the First Peoples Fund on its twenty-fifth 9 anniversary.
