11

JOINT SESSION

12

The Senate convened with the House of Representatives in the House Chamber for the purpose of receiving a message from the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Steven R. Jensen. The President of the Senate, Larry Rhoden, presided.

13

14

15

The following prayer was delivered by Rev. Craig Wexler, Pierre/Ft. Pierre Ministerial Association, Pierre, South Dakota:

16

17

Almighty God...You took Moses atop Mt. Sinai and you gave him a gift. You gave him the gift of the Law—Your—Law—a gift in order to prevent "us" from harming others, and to keep "us" from harming ourselves. You saw it necessary to save the Israelites who were held captive and knew nothing but the cracks of whips and the shouts of "Faster...More...work harder!" Sun—up to Sun—down, day-in...and day-out. You heard their cries for freedom and peace—you honored their pleas—you upheld your covenant with Abraham and Your chosen people. But You also knew that they needed Laws and boundaries.

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

And at the same time, Lord....we were down at the base of the mountain, already impatient and doubting Your presence, and we began building our golden calves! Already we were breaking the first commandment—already we were letting the devil whisper in our ears—already we began worshipping false gods, creating false identities, producing selfish agendas---and why? Because You were giving us a gift, and we were failing to listen!

25

26

27

28

29

And now Lord—You have given us people to help navigate the situations we find ourselves in today:

30

31

We pray for our Law Enforcement—the ones who you call into service to protect & serve—the ones tasked to enforce the laws that we, in this room, create. We pray for their wisdom and discernment—we pray for their protection and an ever-growing need for their emotional intelligence while they see your people, often times at their worst.

32

33

34

35

I pray for the law makers—the legislative body before me today—that they might listen to each other, listen to their people (Not in order to please each one of them, assuming any of us could actually do such a thing), but listen in order to hear the concerns and pains that need to be compromised upon. I pray that this body can know the differences between Your Laws, O God, and the ones we feel need to be added. I pray that we understand that we ought not depart from Your created intentions for us as Your prized creatures—give this legislation Your guidance and clear command.

36

37

38

39

40

41

1 We pray for our Judges at all levels. May you protect them from political bias—may you protect
2 them from the temptations of the evil one to be slighted and misled—may you help them interpret
3 the law to the absolute best of their abilities so that justice might continue with integrity and
4 honesty. Protect this system in all Your Will and capacity, O Lord.

5 We pray for our system of Corrections. Our staff in the prisons and jails are exhausted and
6 spread thin. We pray for their courage and sustenance—we pray that they might have the wisdom
7 and ability to extol dignity to those behind bars. May our corrections staff at all levels care for,
8 protect, redirect, and provide the necessary boundaries for those who are in a complex and very
9 emotionally charged community. Give them Your faculties to serve well.

10 And finally, most Gracious God-----As our judges are tasked to declare 'Innocent' or 'Guilty',
11 let us all remember that Your most loving act of death and resurrection assures us new life when 12 we turn and believe—when we hear Your Gospel message proclaimed. Give courage to all the 13 'preachers' in uniform or without, to help the broken know that You have come to give second
14 chances and forgiven, New Life. Through Your mercy, In Your Holy Name, we pray, Amen.
