

On page 1, line 6, of the House Taxation Engrossed bill, after "years." insert "

The county treasurer shall keep record of the estimated amount of property tax relief provided to any religious society under this chapter. After two years of receiving a property tax exemption under this section, if the land does not have any structures affixed to it that are used for religious purposes, the religious society must pay to the county the estimated amount of property tax relief granted to it over the duration of the exemption provided under this section."
