Section 2. That a NEW SECTION be added to chapter 1-33:

The Bureau of Human Resources and Administration may not, without legislative consent, enter into or otherwise authorize the lease of real property necessary for the operation of state government, if the term of the lease exceeds ten years or the amount of rental payments due during the term of the lease exceeds five million dollars.

In order to receive legislative consent, the commissioner of bureau human resources and administration shall:

(1) If the legislature is in session, seek the introduction and adoption of a joint resolution consenting to the lease; or

(2) If the Legislature is in a recess or between legislative sessions, request that the Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council review and consent to the terms and conditions of the lease.

A lease of real property necessary for the operation of state government may not be divided or structured in order to avoid or otherwise defeat the approval threshold established in this section.

Any lease entered into in violation of this section is void and unenforceable.
