2 leadership, transformative impact, and unwavering dedication to advancing
3 athletics, academics, and community empowerment.

4 WHEREAS, Bryan Brewer, Sr., was born in Pine Ridge, South Dakota, on February 4, 1947, 5 the son of Vincent and Alvina Brewer, and an enrolled member of the Oglala Sioux Tribe; and

6 WHEREAS, Bryan's Lakota name, Ohiyaku, means, "returns victoriously", which has come 7 to symbolize his life of service, triumph, and leadership; and

8 WHEREAS, Bryan served his country honorably as a United States Navy Seabee during 9 the Vietnam War, completing two tours and earning recognition as a combat veteran; and

10 WHEREAS, Bryan is the proud father of four children and grandfather to four grandchildren 11 and two great-grandchildren, who have all been influenced by his vision and guidance; and

12 WHEREAS, Bryan graduated from Black Hills State University in 1976 with a bachelor's 13 degree in secondary education and dedicated thirty-three years to the education field as a 14 teacher, coach, principal, athletic director, and dean of students, serving at Pine Ridge and 15 Red Cloud High School, and at the Rocky Boy Tribal High School in Rocky Boy, Montana; and

16 WHEREAS, Bryan's most significant contribution to the state of South Dakota was his 17 founding of the Lakota Nation Invitational, an event that has grown from a small basketball 18 tournament to a celebration of athletics, academics, fine arts, and culture for the last forty-19 seven years; and

20 WHEREAS, the Lakota Nation Invitational has become one of the most prestigious events
21 in South Dakota, fostering racial reconciliation, uniting the Oceti Sakowin tribes, and honoring 22 military service men and women, while highlighting the talents of the state's youth; and

1        WHEREAS, Bryan's leadership in the Lakota Nation Invitational has led to recognition as 2 South Dakota's premier event by Sports Illustrated magazine, and contributed to the 3 empowerment of youth for over four decades, creating a history of champions; and

4        WHEREAS, Bryan served as a member of the South Dakota High School Activities
5 Association Board of Directors from 2004 to 2009, becoming the first Native American to hold 6 the position, and advocating for Native American students and increasing awareness of their 7 unique challenges; and

8        WHEREAS, Bryan served as president of the Oglala Sioux Tribe from 2012 to 2016, in 9 which he earned recognition as an environmental advocate, opposing the Keystone XL 10 pipeline, and securing a permanent shutdown of liquor sales in White Clay, Nebraska; and

11        WHEREAS, in 2018, the South Dakota High School Coaches Association created the Spirit 12 of Influence Award to be given annually in honor of Bryan to recognize his enduring legacy of 13 leadership and positive influence on students; and

14        WHEREAS, Bryan was inducted into the South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame in 2022, a 15 recognition of his monumental contributions to the state's athletic, academic, and cultural 16 communities; and

17        WHEREAS, Bryan's unparalleled dedication to improving education, empowering youth, 18 and expanding opportunities for future generations serves as an inspiring example of 19 leadership and selflessness for all South Dakotans;

20        NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the One Hundredth Legislature of the State
21 of South Dakota, that Bryan Brewer, Sr., has made a positive difference to his community,
22 his people, and the state of South Dakota, and his legacy will continue to inspire generations 23 to come.
