WHEREAS, Jan Nicolay was the first female high school principal in the city of Sioux Falls when she took on that role at Washington High School in 1987; and

WHEREAS, Jan Nicolay was elected to the South Dakota House of Representatives in 1982, representing Minnehaha County as a Republican until 1996; and

WHEREAS, Jan Nicolay was a trailblazer for women in South Dakota politics in those years, serving as the first woman co-chair of the Joint Appropriations Committee from 1987 through 1992; and

WHEREAS, Jan Nicolay led Southeast Technical Institute on an interim basis, and also served four years on the South Dakota Board of Education Standards; and

WHEREAS, Jan Nicolay championed other community causes such as the Outdoor Campus of the Department of Game, Fish and Parks in Sioux Falls;

South Dakota Legislature

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the One Hundredth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that the late Jan Nicolay was an outstanding example of an educator and citizen lawmaker, bringing a lifetime of experience in her chosen field to the South Dakota Legislature, even as her expertise grew beyond education to include important work helping to oversee funding for the state's needs.
