9 child's sex.

10 Section 9. That a NEW SECTION be added to a NEW CHAPTER in title 26:

11 A parent may submit a written complaint to the board of a school district, detailing
12 any violation of sections 6 to 8, inclusive, of this Act. The parent is entitled to a meeting
13 with the superintendent of the school district to discuss the complaint. The superintendent 14 shall investigate the complaint and respond to the parent in writing within fourteen days
15 of receiving the complaint. The response provided by the superintendent must describe 16 the actions that the district is to take in order to remedy the parent's complaint.

17 A parent may appeal the actions of the superintendent to the board of the school
18 district by submitting a written complaint detailing the violation of sections 6 to 8, inclusive 19 of this Act and a description of how the actions taken by the superintendent failed to 20 resolve the complaint. The board shall investigate the complaint and shall meet with the 21 parent to discuss the complaint. The board shall adopt a plan of action to remedy the 22 complaint at the first meeting of the board following receipt of the complaint.

23 If the board's plan of action does not remedy the parent's complaint, the parent
24 may file suit and assert a violation of sections 6 to 8, inclusive, of this Act as a claim
25 against the school district. A parent who successfully asserts a claim or defense under this 26 section may recover declaratory relief, injunctive relief, liquidated damages of five 27 thousand dollars per violation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, and any other 28 appropriate relief.

29 Section 10. That a NEW SECTION be added to a NEW CHAPTER in title 26:

30 For the purposes of sections 6 to 9, inclusive, of this Act, "school district" does not 31 include any public institution of higher education, provided that the parent of a minor child
32 retains the parent's rights under this Act and any other applicable federal law, as applied

1 to a school district, if the parent's child is enrolled in a dual enrollment course offered by 2 the school district and a public institution of higher education.

3 Section 11. That a NEW SECTION be added to a NEW CHAPTER in title 26:

4 A parent may bring suit for a violation of this chapter and may raise this chapter 5 as a defense in any judicial or administrative proceeding, without regard to whether the 6 proceeding is brought by or in the name of the state, a private person, or other party.

7 A parent who successfully asserts a claim or defense under this chapter may 8 recover declaratory relief, injunctive relief, compensatory damages, reasonable attorneys' 9 fees and costs, and any other appropriate relief.

10 A state agency or political subdivision of this state shall indemnify the employees 11 of the state or political subdivision for any liability incurred by the employee and for any 12 judgement entered against the employee for claims arising under this chapter. A state 13 agency or political subdivision of this state is not required to indemnify an employee if the 14 employee was convicted of a criminal violation for the conduct from which the claim arises.
