
South Dakota Legislature

Senate Commemoration 825

Introduced by: Senator Pischke and Representative Heinemann

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION celebrating the life and legacy of Casey Joe Wilson.

WHEREAS, Casey was the beloved husband of Carleen; father of Ailee, Landree, Breck, and Bryer; son of Randy and Darla; brother of Cody and Cullen; and friend to all; and

WHEREAS, Casey was a member of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, and his love for team roping allowed him to travel across the country and participate in numerous rodeo competitions; and

WHEREAS, Casey was a proud member of the Oglala Sioux Tribe; and

WHEREAS, Casey was a skilled farrier, gifted craftsman, passionate musician, and shrewd businessman; and

WHEREAS, Casey loved life and carried with him a deep appreciation for the people and places that helped form the man he was; and

WHEREAS, Casey was instrumental in founding the South Dakota shared parenting movement and never hesitated in advocating for his belief that children should have the greatest possible opportunity to cultivate healthy relationships with both parents;

South Dakota Legislature

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the One Hundred First Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that Casey Joe Wilson gave so much of himself to his family, friends, and community, and in return, the Legislature extends its sincerest condolences to his family.
