A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring the life of Beverly Smith.

WHEREAS, Beverly Louise Smith lived a full and joyful life of eighty years; and

WHEREAS, Beverly grew up in Glenham, South Dakota, where she graduated from high school and later met her husband, Sergeant at Arms Jim Smith; and

WHEREAS, Beverly and Jim were married in Mobridge in 1962 and remained committed to each other for fifty-six years; and

WHEREAS, Beverly and Jim raised four strong-willed, big-hearted children and helped to shape the lives of seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild; and

WHEREAS, Beverly created a home filled with love, laughter, discipline, and faith; and

WHEREAS, Beverly was a practical Bohemian woman who went about her business in an unpretentious manner, while her kind and generous actions spoke volumes to those who knew her:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Ninety-Fourth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that Beverly Smith be remembered for a life lived with unwavering kindness, respect, and humor.
