And that as so amended, said bill do pass.

Respectfully submitted,
Herman Otten, Chair

Also MR. SPEAKER:

The Joint Committee on Legislative Procedure respectfully reports that it has had under consideration the following additions to the Joint rules and returns the same with the recommendation that said rules be adopted:

3-1. Appointment of legislative employees. The president pro tempore of the Senate shall appoint all necessary employees for the Senate. The speaker of the House shall appoint all necessary employees of the House. All employee positions shall be described in a uniform compensation and classification manual-schedule which shall be annually reviewed by the Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council and approved by the Joint Select Committee on Compensation.

3-1.1 Administration of intern program. The Executive Board shall administer the program and supervise the college student interns who are assigned to the legislative branch of government.

6A-1. Legislative Documents. Only bills and the following may be introduced in the Legislature:

(1) A House or Senate resolution pertains to the affairs of one house only and requires action only by the legislative chamber concerned. A House or Senate resolution may be used to express an opinion or principle of one house, to express an opinion to or make a request of the other house, to regulate procedure, or to refer a topic to the Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council for possible study by an interim study committee;

(2) A concurrent resolution does not have the force of law. A concurrent resolution shall only be used to express an opinion or principle of the Legislature, to authorize interim studies, sessions or committees, to instruct a department of state government, or to petition federal agencies;

(3) A joint resolution contains matters of legislation only. A joint resolution may be used to refer a matter for referendum to the people, to place a constitutional amendment on the ballot at the next general election, to ratify proposed amendments to the United States Constitution, to enact legislative reapportionment, or to grant a water right pursuant to § 46-5-20.1;

(4) A House or Senate resolution of disapproval as provided under Article IV, Section 8, of the South Dakota Constitution; and

(5) A legislative commemoration expresses recognition of service or achievements of national or statewide importance or expresses sorrow over death or loss.

6A-8. Title and sponsors placed on bills and resolutions. Before a bill or resolution is introduced, its title and the name or names of the member, members, or committee introducing the bill or resolution shall be printed on it.

6B-1. Time for introduction of bills, number of copies for introduction, and bills are property of Legislature. Any member or committee desiring to introduce a bill, resolution, or commemoration shall electronically file two copies of the bill, resolution, or commemoration with the bill clerk at least two hours prior to the opening of the daily session. Any bill, resolution, or commemoration filed with the bill clerk and duly numbered becomes the property of the Legislature.

6B-2. Numbering of bills and resolutions. Bills shall be numbered consecutively as introduced, beginning with No. 1 for Senate bills and with No. 1001 for House bills. Resolutions shall be numbered consecutively as introduced, beginning with No. 1001 for House resolutions and with No. 1 for Senate resolutions. Joint resolutions shall be numbered consecutively as introduced, beginning with No. 501 for Senate joint resolutions and with No. 5001 for House joint resolutions. Concurrent resolutions shall be numbered consecutively as introduced, beginning with No. 601 for Senate concurrent resolutions and with No. 6001 for House concurrent resolutions. Resolutions shall be numbered consecutively as introduced, beginning with No. 701 for Senate resolutions and with No. 7001 for House resolutions.

6B-4. Sponsorship of bills and resolutions. Any bill, joint resolution, or concurrent resolution may be introduced by any member or members of the house of origin. Any member or members of the other house may join the member or members of the house of origin in introducing the bill or resolution. After introduction, a member's name may be electronically added as a cosponsor or as prime sponsor to a bill or resolution upon the request of the member and the approval of the prime sponsor of the bill or resolution any time before the enrolling of the bill. After introduction, a member's name may be removed upon the request of the member any time before the enrolling of the bill.

6B-5. Committee introduction of bills and resolutions. No bill or joint resolution may be introduced in either house of the Legislature by any committee thereof, except:

(1) A bill or a joint resolution introduced by any standing committee of either house;

(2) A bill or joint resolution referred to the Legislature from an interim committee of the State Legislative Research Council;

(3) A bill or joint resolution introduced at the request of the interim Rules Review Committee, the interim Government Operations and Audit Committee, the interim Retirement Laws Committee, the interim Joint Bonding Review Committee, and the interim State-Tribal Relations Committee by one or more committee members upon majority vote of the interim committee; or

(4) A bill or joint resolution introduced at the request of the Governor, an executive agency or of the chief justice of the Supreme Court.

6B-5.1. Bill introduction by standing committees. Before a bill or joint resolution can be introduced by a standing committee pursuant to § 2-7-6.1, the bill or resolution shall have received an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of a standing committee at one of its regular meetings with a statement of such fact on a separate slip attached to the cover of the bill and signed by the chair of the committee. The chair of the committee shall electronically file the bill or resolution for the committee.
6E-2. Hoghouse amendments. A substitute bill shall be treated as an amendment and shall be governed by the rules governing amendments. A substitute bill shall include a listing of the sponsors of the substitute bill, who shall be sponsors of the bill as amended by the substitute bill. Final committee action on any bill amended with a substitute bill may not be heard until one legislative day has intervened, if a request for delay is made and supported by at least one-fifth of the committee members-elect unless the chair otherwise delays action on the bill as amended. A request for delay is not in order on the final day for the committee to act upon the bill, according to the committee’s schedule.

6H-1. Introduction of commemorations. Any member may introduce a legislative commemoration, which may be cosponsored by other members of either house, by electronically filing it with the bill clerk of that member’s house. The prime sponsor shall submit all necessary information to the legislative research council prior to introduction. However, no member may introduce a legislative commemoration after the deadline prescribed by Joint Rule Chapter 17.

6H-2. Numbering of commemorations. Each legislative commemoration shall be numbered consecutively as introduced beginning with No. 1-801 for the Senate and No. 1001-8001 for the House of Representatives.

6H-3. Printing and calendaring. Calendaring of commemorations. Upon introduction, the presiding officer shall order the legislative commemoration printed in the journal of that legislative day. The presiding officer shall place each pending legislative commemoration on the calendar of the next legislative day following its printing.

6I-2. Waiving electronic requirement. The presiding officer may waive the requirement that any filing, submission, or approval be done electronically, if the electronic system is not available and functional.

7-2. Committee reports. Each committee shall report final committee actions on legislative proposals. The chair of a committee shall sign electronically approve the reports of the committee and present them to the body when the call for committee reports is made. The chair is responsible for the accuracy and propriety of the chair’s statements and shall answer any questions pertaining to the report. This rule does not prohibit the committees on legislative procedure from reporting at any time. Formal actions shall be reported to the body not later than the next legislative day following its printing.

7-12. Joint committees on appropriations. The Joint Committee on Appropriations, consisting of the Senate and House Committees on Appropriations, is deemed to be a standing committee of the Senate and House of Representatives for the limited purposes of hearing agency or other budget presentations, and introducing, hearing, or acting on bills that authorize the sale of state property, appropriate money, or adjust school district property tax levies pursuant to an appropriations bill. All Joint Committee on Appropriations action shall be approved by a majority vote of the Joint Committee unless a member calls for a separate vote of the House Committee on Appropriations and the Senate Committee on Appropriations in which case a majority vote of each committee is required to adopt the action. Each agenda for the Joint Committee on Appropriations shall be electronically approved by the chair of the Senate Committee on Appropriations and the chair of the House Committee on Appropriations. The respective vice chair of each committee may sign electronically approve the agenda in the absence of the chair.

8-2. Conference committee meetings, committee reports, and reports must be germane. Conference committees shall meet in open session, and minutes shall be taken and prepared in a like manner as provided for in Joint Rule 7-6. The presiding officer of the house of origin shall announce to that body the time and location of each conference committee meeting. The co-chairs of each conference committee shall report the results of each meeting to the body in a conference committee report jointly signed electronically approved by both. The conference committee report must be germane to the title of the bill as submitted to the conference committee. The adoption of any conference committee report constituting final disposition must be approved by the recorded affirmative vote of at least two members from each house.
15-1. Communications by messages. Any communication between the Senate and the House of Representatives shall be by message which shall be signed approved by the secretary or chief clerk, respectively, and sent transmitted to the house to which it is addressed.

Respectfully submitted,
Brock L. Greenfield, Chair
