20-15-4. Notice--Response.

Within fifteen business days after an alleged aggrieved party serves or sends a notice pursuant to § 20-15-2, the property owner, agent, or other responsible party of the property where the alleged violation occurred shall respond to the notice by personal service or certified mail to the alleged aggrieved party. That response shall:

 28 compliance with applicable accessibility laws;
- (2) Challenge the validity of the alleged violation. If the property owner, agent, or other responsible party responds in this manner, the alleged aggrieved party may file an action, subject to any applicable statutes of limitations, any time after receipt of that response; or
- 33 (3) State that the alleged violations identified by the alleged aggrieved party have 34 been corrected to comply with applicable accessibility laws. The property owner,

1agent, or other responsible party shall attach evidence to the response that verifies2those improvements.

- 3 Section 5. That a NEW SECTION be added:
- 4

20-15-5. Remedy--Civil Action.

5 If a property owner, agent, or responsible party of the property where the alleged 6 accessibility law violation occurred responds in the manner described in subdivision 20-15-4(2), the property owner, agent, or responsible party shall have thirty days to remedy 7 8 the alleged violation. The thirty-day period shall begin on the date the alleged aggrieved 9 party receives the response described in \S 20-15-4. The owner, agent, or other 10 responsible party may extend the thirty-day period by not more than thirty days upon 11 providing a reasonable explanation as to why the improvement requires more than thirty 12 days to complete. Reasonable explanations include demonstrated need for extension, such 13 as construction and permitting related issues.

14 If the property owner, agent, or other responsible party of the property where the 15 alleged accessibility law violation occurred responds in the manner described in division subdivision 20-15-4(1) and makes the improvements to bring the property into 16 compliance with applicable accessibility laws within the thirty-day period described-in in 17 18 this section or provides a reasonable explanation as to why those improvements are not 19 completed, the response as described in subdivision 20-15-4(1) may not be considered 20 an admission of quilt and is inadmissible as evidence in any future actions based on the 21 same facts filed against the property owner, agent, or other responsible party.

If the property owner, agent, or other responsible party of the property where the alleged accessibility law violation occurred fails to make the improvements to bring the property into compliance with applicable accessibility laws within the thirty-day period described in this section and, in the opinion of the aggrieved party, fails to provide a reasonable explanation as to why those improvements are not completed, the alleged aggrieved party may file a civil action for accessibility law violation against that property owner, agent, or other responsible party.

13	reasonable, the alleged aggrieved party may not receive any damages or attorney's fees
14	for any action arising out of the same or similar facts that served as a basis for the alleged
15	violation. The alleged aggrieved party may receive damages and attorney's fees for actions
