Section 1. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Notwithstanding any other law, there may be no civil forfeiture under South Dakota law. Any forfeiture proceeding shall be held following the trial of the related criminal offense.

Section 2. That a NEW SECTION be added:

23A-51-2. Forfeiture of property--State must establish by clear and convincing evidence.

Property may be forfeited if the state establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the property:

(1) Constitutes, or is derived from, proceeds of the underlying offense for which the person was convicted; or

(2) Was used in any manner or part, to commit, or facilitate the commission of the offense for which the person was convicted.

Nothing in this chapter prevents property from being forfeited by a plea agreement approved by the presiding court, except that a plea agreement may not prevent the claims of a person who has a security interest or is an owner under § 23A-51-6.

Section 3. That a NEW SECTION be added:

23A-51-3. Certain provisions proceeded against under this chapter.

Property forfeitable under §§ 22-24A-15 or 34-20B-70 shall be proceeded against under this chapter.

Section 4. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Nothing in this chapter may be construed to deprive a victim under S.D. Const., Art. VI, § 29 of the victim's right, upon request, to the prompt return of the victim's property when the property is no longer needed as evidence in the case.

Section 5. That a NEW SECTION be added:

23A-51-5. Property taken deemed in custody of attorney general.

Property taken or detained pursuant to this chapter is deemed to be in the custody of the attorney general, subject only to the orders and decrees of a court or official having jurisdiction over the property.

Section 6. That a NEW SECTION be added:

23A-51-6. Person with interest in property--Proof of ownership--Proof of owner knowledge or consent.

Any person, other than a defendant, asserting an interest in the property seized pursuant to this chapter, may petition the court at any time for the return of the person's property. To the extent that the person can establish by clear and convincing evidence that the person has an interest in the property seized, a thing of value is not subject to forfeiture under this chapter by reason of any act or omission, unless the state proves by clear and convincing evidence that the act was committed or the omission occurred with the owner's knowledge or consent. For property not subject to forfeiture, a court shall order the return of the property if the property is not reasonably required to be held for evidentiary reasons.

Section 7. That a NEW SECTION be added:

If the state determines to proceed with forfeiture of property, the state shall provide notice to the defendant and defendant's counsel before the trial for the underlying criminal proceeding. The notice shall provide that the state is seeking forfeiture of the property as an additional sanction related to the criminal violation and shall include:

(1) A description of the property seized;

(2) The date and place of the seizure;

(3) A description of the property's use in the commission of a crime or derivation from the commission of a crime; and

(4) The name and address of the agency responsible for the seizure.

Section 8. That a NEW SECTION be added:

23A-51-8. Forfeiture following conviction--Reasonable expenses of law enforcement and state—Waiver of conviction requirement.

If the state has provided notice under § 23A-51-7 and the underlying prosecution resulted in a conviction, following the trial for the underlying criminal prosecution, the property may be forfeited in a court proceeding if the state establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the property is subject to forfeiture based on evidence received at the criminal trial or additional evidence offered after conviction.

In addition, the court shall determine the extent of reasonable expenses incurred by law enforcement and the state in investigating and prosecuting the underlying criminal case.

The court may waive the conviction requirement and grant permanent title to the state if the prosecuting authority files a motion no fewer than one hundred eighty days after seizure and shows by clear and convincing evidence that, before conviction, the defendant:

(1) Died;

(2) Was deported by the United States government;

(3) Is granted immunity or reduced punishment in exchange for testifying or assisting a law enforcement investigation or prosecution;

(4) Fled the jurisdiction; or

(5) Abandoned the property.

Section 9. That a NEW SECTION be added:

If property is forfeited under this chapter, the attorney general shall sell any forfeited property that is not required to be destroyed by law and that is not harmful to the public, and distribute the proceeds in the following order:
(1) The payment of fines or costs ordered to be paid by the defendant;

(2) The payment of restitution to any victims of the underlying crime;

(3) The payment of reasonable expenses incurred by law enforcement and the state in investigating and prosecuting the underlying criminal case as determined by the court; and

(4) Any remaining balance shall be treated in the same manner as fines and distributed to the schools in the manner prescribed in S.D. Const., Art. VIII, § 3.

(6) The criminal offense alleged that led to the seizure;

(7) The disposition of the property seized;

(8) The estimated value of the property seized; and

(9) For property seized without court process, the cause of the seizure.

Section 11. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Before February first of each year, the attorney general shall provide a report to the auditor general that includes the nature and extent of all seizures under this chapter during the previous calendar year. The attorney general shall publish the report provided under this section on the attorney general's website.

Section 12. That a NEW SECTION be added:

A local or state law enforcement agency may not refer, transfer, or otherwise relinquish possession of property seized under state law to a federal agency by way of adoption of the seized property or other means by the federal agency for the purpose of the property's forfeiture under the federal Controlled Substances Act, Public Law 91-513, or other federal law.
