

2020 South Dakota Legislature
House Bill 1179
ENROLLED

AN ACT

ENTITLED An Act to authorize series limited liability companies.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-701. Series of members, managers, or limited liability company interests permitted.

An operating agreement may establish or provide for the establishment of a series of members, managers, or limited liability company interests having separate rights, powers, or duties with respect to specified property or obligations of the limited liability company or profits and losses associated with specified property or obligations. To the extent provided in the operating agreement, any such series may have a separate business purpose or investment objective.

Section 2. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-702. Liability of series for debts of limited liability company or other series.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, the debts, liabilities, and obligations incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the limited liability company generally or any other series thereof, if all of the following apply:

- (1) The operating agreement creates one or more series;
- (2) Separate and distinct records are maintained for or on behalf of any such series;
- (3) The assets associated with any such series, whether held directly or indirectly, including through a nominee or otherwise, are accounted for separately from the other assets of the limited liability company or of any other series;

- (4) The operating agreement provides for the limitations on liabilities of a series described in this subsection;
- (5) Notice of the limitation on liabilities of a series described in this subsection is included in the limited liability company's articles of organization; and
- (6) A certificate of designation has been issued for each series that is to have limited liability under this section.

(b) A particular series shall be deemed to have possession, custody, and control only of the books, records, information, and documentation related to such series and not of the books, records, information, and documentation related to the limited liability company as a whole or any other series thereof.

(c) With respect to a particular series, unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, none of the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for or otherwise existing with respect to a limited liability company generally, or any other series thereof, are enforceable against the assets of such series, subject to the provisions of subsection (a).

(d) Compliance with subdivisions (a)(5) and (a)(6) of this section shall constitute notice of such limitation of liability of a series.

(e) A series with limited liability shall be treated as a separate entity to the extent set forth in the articles of organization. Each series with limited liability may, in its own name, contract, hold title to assets, including real and personal property, whether tangible or intangible, grant security interests, sue and be sued, and otherwise conduct business and exercise the powers of a limited liability company under this chapter. The limited liability company and any of its series may elect to consolidate its operations as a single taxpayer to the extent permitted under applicable law, elect to work cooperatively, elect to contract jointly, or elect to be treated as a single business for the purposes of qualification or authorization to do business in this or any other state. Such elections do not affect the limitation of liability set forth in this section except to the extent that the series have specifically accepted joint liability by contract.

Section 3. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-703. Name of series.

Except in the case of a foreign limited liability company that has adopted a name that is not the name under which it is registered in its jurisdiction of organization, as permitted under § 47-34A-1005, the name of the series with limited liability is required to contain the entire name of the limited liability company and be distinguishable from the names of the other series set forth in the articles of organization. In the case of a foreign limited liability company that has adopted a name that is not the name under which it is registered in its jurisdiction of organization, as permitted under § 47-34A-1005, the name of the series with limited liability must contain the entire name under which the foreign limited liability company has been admitted to transact business in this state.

Section 4. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-704. Formation of series—Amendment to certificate of designation—
Dissolution of series—Registered agent and office.

- (1) Upon issuance by the secretary of state of a certificate of designation setting forth the name of the series with limited liability, in compliance with § 47-34A-203 or amendments under § 47-34A-204, the series' existence shall begin;
- (2) Each certificate of designation issued by the secretary of state shall be conclusive evidence that all required conditions have been met and that the series has been or shall be legally organized and formed under this section and is notice for all purposes of all other facts required to be set forth therein as of the filing date on the certificate;
- (3) The name of a series with limited liability under this section may be changed by filing an application for a new certificate of designation with the secretary of state pursuant to § 47-34A-204, identifying the series whose name is being changed and the new name of such series. If the managers of a series are not the same as the managers of the limited liability company, the names of the managers of a manager-managed series may be changed by filing an application for a new certificate of designation with the secretary of state;
- (4) A series with limited liability under this section may be dissolved (i) upon the occurrence of any of the events referenced in § 47-34A-801 with respect to the series or (ii) by the dissolution of the limited liability company as provided in § 47-34A-801. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a series may be dissolved and its affairs wound up without causing the dissolution of the limited liability company or any other series. The dissolution of a series established in accordance with § 47-34A-702 does not affect the limitation on liabilities of such series provided by § 47-34A-702. A series will be terminated (i) upon the dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company and the filing of articles of termination pursuant to § 47-34A-805, or (ii) upon the dissolution and winding up of the series and filing of an application for a certificate of designation identifying the series being terminated;

(5) Articles of organization, articles of amendment, articles of termination, or applications for certificates of designation described under this subsection may be executed by the limited liability company or any manager, person, or entity designated in the operating agreement for the limited liability company.

(b) If different from the limited liability company, the application for the certificate of designation shall list the names of the managers if the series is manager-managed.

(c) A series of a limited liability company shall be deemed to be in good standing as long as the limited liability company is in good standing. A series of a limited liability company is administratively dissolved when the limited liability company is administratively dissolved, and the series will be reinstated if the limited liability company is reinstated.

(d) The registered agent and registered office for the limited liability company appointed under chapter 59-11 shall serve as the agent and office for service of process for each series in this state.

Section 5. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-705. Rights, powers, and duties relating to series governed by operating agreement.

(a) An operating agreement may provide for classes or groups of members or managers associated with a series having such relative rights, powers, and duties as an operating agreement may provide and may make provision for the future creation of additional classes or groups of members or managers associated with the series having such relative rights, powers, and duties as may be established, including rights, powers, and duties senior and subordinate to or different from existing classes and groups of members or managers associated with the series.

(b) A series may be managed either by the member or members associated with the series or by the manager or managers chosen by the members of such series, as provided in the operating agreement. Unless otherwise provided in an operating agreement, the management of a series shall be vested in the members associated with such series.

(c) An operating agreement may grant to all or certain identified members or managers, or to a specified class or group of the members or managers associated with a series, the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the members or managers associated with the series, on any matter. An operating agreement may provide that any member or class or group of members associated with a series shall have no voting rights or ability to otherwise participate in the management or governance of such series, but any such member or class or group of members are owners of the series.

(d) Except as modified in this section, the provisions of this chapter that are generally applicable to limited liability companies and their managers, members, and transferees shall be applicable to each particular series with respect to the operation of such series. Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a manager of a manager-managed series owes the duties referenced in § 47-34A-409 only to the series for which the manager serves as a manager. A manager of a manager-managed series does not owe any duty (i) to any series for which the manager does not serve as a manager, (ii) to the members of another series for which the manager does not serve as a manager, in their capacity as members of another series, (iii) to the limited liability company, or (iv) to the members of the limited liability company, in their capacity as members of the limited liability company. Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, a member of a member-managed series owes the duties referenced in § 47-34A-409 only to the series of which the member is a member. A member of a member-managed series does not owe any duty (i) to any series of which the member is not a member, (ii) to the members of another series of which the member is not a member, in their capacity as members of another series, (iii) to the limited liability company, or (iv) to the members of the limited liability company, in their capacity as members of the limited liability company.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any event specified in this chapter or in an operating agreement that causes a manager to cease to be a manager with respect to a series does not, in itself, cause such manager to cease to be a manager of the limited liability company or with respect to any other series thereof.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in an operating agreement, any event specified in this chapter or in an operating agreement that causes a member to cease to be associated with a series does not, in itself, cause such member to cease to be associated with any other series, terminate the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company, or cause the termination of the series, regardless of whether such member was the last remaining member associated with such series.

(g) An operating agreement may impose restrictions, duties, and obligations on members of the limited liability company or any series thereof as a matter of internal governance, including, without limitation, those with regard to:

- (1) Choice of law, forum selection, or consent to personal jurisdiction;
- (2) Capital contributions;
- (3) Restrictions on, or terms and conditions of, the transfer of membership interests;
- (4) Restrictive covenants, including noncompetition, nonsolicitation, and confidentiality provisions;
- (5) Fiduciary duties; and
- (6) Restrictions, duties, or obligations to or for the benefit of the limited liability company, other series thereof, or their affiliates.

Section 6. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-706. Activities of series in foreign jurisdiction--Registration of series authorized in foreign jurisdiction.

(a) If a limited liability company with the ability to establish series does not register to do business in a foreign jurisdiction for itself and its series, a series of a limited liability company may itself register to do business as a limited liability company in the foreign jurisdiction in accordance with the laws of the foreign jurisdiction.

(b) If a foreign limited liability company, as permitted in the jurisdiction of its organization, has established a series having separate rights, powers, or duties and has limited the liabilities of such series so that the debts, liabilities, and obligations incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series are enforceable against the assets of such series only, and not against the assets of the limited liability company generally or any other series thereof, or so that the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to the limited liability company generally or any other series thereof are not enforceable against the assets of such series, then the limited liability company, on behalf of itself or any of its series, or any of its series on its own behalf may register to do business in this state in accordance with this chapter. The limitation of liability shall also be stated on the application for registration. In addition to the requirements of § 47-34A-1002, the registration application filed shall identify each series being registered to do business in the state by the limited liability company. Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, the debts, liabilities, and obligations incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to a particular series of such a foreign limited liability company shall be enforceable against the assets of such series only and not against the assets of the foreign limited liability company generally or any other series thereof, and none of the debts, liabilities, obligations, and expenses incurred, contracted for, or otherwise existing with respect to such a foreign limited liability company generally or any other series thereof shall be enforceable against the assets of such series. Any series registering to do business in this state on its own behalf shall provide the information required in § 47-34A-1002 and pay the fees required by § 47-34A-212 and any other required fees.

Section 7. That a NEW SECTION be added:

47-34A-707. Requirements for application for certificate of designation.

- (4) Whether the series is to be manager-managed, and, if so, the name and address for each initial manager, if different than the manager of the limited liability company in subsection (1).
