1 of the names described in subsection (b). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name
2 applied for if:

3 (1) The present user, registrant, or owner of a reserved name consents to the use in a 4 record and submits an undertaking in form satisfactory to the secretary of state to 5 change the name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary
6 of state from the name applied for; or

7 (2) The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment
8 of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name
9 applied for in this state.

10 (d) A limited liability company may use the name, including a fictitious name, of another 11 domestic or foreign company which is used in this state if the other company is organized or

13 (1) Merged with the other company;

14 (2) Been formed by reorganization with the other company; or 15 (3) Acquired substantially all of the assets, including the name, of the other company.

16 SECTION 106. The exclusive right to the use of a name may be reserved by:

25 The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application, executed

1 by the applicant, to reserve a specified name. If the secretary of state finds that the name is 2 available for use by a domestic or foreign limited liability company, the secretary of state shall 3 reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of one hundred twenty days.
4 Once having so reserved a name, the same applicant may not again reserve the same name until 5 more than sixty days after the expiration of the last one hundred twenty day period for which that 6 applicant reserved that name. The right to the exclusive use of a reserved name may be 7 transferred to any other person by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of the 8 transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved and specifying the name and 9 address of the transferee.

10 SECTION 107. (a) A foreign limited liability company may register its name subject to the 11 requirements of section 1005, if the name is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of 12 state from names that are not available under section 105(b).

13 (b) A foreign limited liability company registers its name, or its name with any addition

17 the business in which it is engaged; and

18 (2) Accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a record of similar import, from the 19 state or country of organization.

20 (c) A foreign limited liability company whose registration is effective may renew it for 21 successive years by delivering for filing in the office of the secretary of state a renewal
22 application complying with subsection (b) between October first and December thirty-first of the 23 preceding year. The renewal application renews the registration for the following calendar year.

24 (d) A foreign limited liability company whose registration is effective may qualify as a
25 foreign company under its name or consent in writing to the use of its name by a limited liability

1 company later organized under this Act or by another foreign company later authorized to
2 transact business in this State. The registered name terminates when the limited liability company
3 is organized or the foreign company qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign 4 company under the registered name.

5 SECTION 108. Each limited liability company shall have, and continuously maintain in this 6 state, a registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business, and 7 a registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this state whose business
8 office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation 9 authorized to transact business in this state, having a business office identical with such 10 registered office.

11 SECTION 109. A limited liability company may change its registered office or agent, or 20 registered agent, as changed, will be identical;

- 21 (7) That the change was authorized by affirmative vote of a majority of the members of 22 the limited liability company.

23 The statement shall be verified by one or more of its managers if management of the limited
24 liability company has been vested by the members in a manager or managers or if management
25 of the limited liability company is retained by the members, then by any member and delivered

1 to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the statement conforms to the 2 provisions of this Act, the secretary of state shall file the statement, and upon filing, the change
3 of address of the registered office or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, is 4 effective.

5 SECTION 110. Any registered agent of a limited liability company may resign as agent upon 6 filing a written notice of resignation, executed with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith
7 mail a copy of the resignation to the limited liability company at its registered office by certified
8 mail, return receipt requested. The appointment of the agent shall terminate upon the expiration 9 of thirty days after receipt of notice by the secretary of state.

10 SECTION 111. (a) The registered agent appointed by a limited liability company or a 11 foreign limited liability company shall be an agent of the limited liability company upon whom 12 any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the limited 13 liability company may be served.

14 (b) If a limited liability company fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state,
15 or if its registered agent cannot be found at its registered office, the secretary of state shall be 16 an agent of the company upon whom any process, notice or demand may be served. Service on 17 the secretary of state of any process, notice or demand shall be made by delivering to the 18 secretary of state or any clerk having charge of the limited liability department an original and 19 one exact or conforming copy of the process, notice, or demand.

20 (c) If any process, notice, or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state
21 shall send the copy by certified or registered mail to the company at its registered office.

22 The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon 23 the secretary of state under this section and shall record the time of service and the response.

24 (d) Nothing contained in this section shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, 25 notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a limited liability company in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

SECTION 112. (a) A limited liability company may be organized under this Act for any lawful purpose, subject to any law of this state governing or regulating business including regulation of professional service firms. Limited liability companies may not engage in activities proscribed by chapter 47-9A unless the ownership restrictions are met by the membership of the limited liability company by substitution of members for shareholders in that chapter.

(b) Unless its articles of organization provide otherwise, a limited liability company has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry on its business or affairs, including power to:

- (1) Sue and be sued, and defend in its name;
- (2) Purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

1 venture, trust, or other entity including but not limited to limited partnerships and
2 limited liability companies;

14 furthers the business of the limited liability company.

15 SECTION 201. A limited liability company is a legal entity distinct from its members. A 16 member of a limited liability company is not a proper party to proceedings by or against a limited 17 liability company.

18 SECTION 202A. (a) One or more persons may organize a limited liability company,
19 consisting of one or more members, by delivering articles of organization to the Office of the 20 Secretary of State for filing.

21 (b) Unless a delayed effective date is specified in accordance with section 206(d), the 22 existence of a limited liability company begins when the articles of organization and the first 23 annual report as required in section 211(c) are filed.

24 (c) The original and one exact or conforming copy of the articles of organization and the 25 first annual report shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of organization and the annual report conform to law, the secretary of state shall, when all fees have been paid as prescribed:

SECTION 202B. Upon the issuance of the certificate of organization, the limited liability company shall be considered organized, and such certificate of organization shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the members have been complied with and that the limited liability company has been legally organized under this Act, except as against this state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of organization or for involuntary dissolution of the limited liability company.

No limited liability company may transact business or incur indebtedness, except that which is incidental to its organization, or except for obtaining subscriptions for or payment of contributions, until the secretary of state has issued a certificate of organization.

4           obligations under section 303(c).

5       (b) Articles of organization of a limited liability company may set forth:

6           (1)   Provisions permitted to be set forth in an operating agreement; or 7           (2)   Other matters not inconsistent with law.

8       (c) Articles of organization of a limited liability company may not vary the nonwaivable

10      is inconsistent with the articles of organization:

11          (1)   The operating agreement controls as to managers, members, and members' 12               transferees; and

13          (2)   The articles of organization control as to persons, other than managers, members and 14               their transferees, who reasonably rely on the articles to their detriment.

15      SECTION 204. (a) Articles of organization of a limited liability company may be amended
16      at any time by delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state for filing. The articles 17      of amendment must set forth the:

18          (1)   Name of the limited liability company;

19          (2)   Date of filing of the articles of organization; and

21      (b) A limited liability company may restate its articles of organization at any time. Restated
22      articles of organization must be signed and filed in the same manner as articles of amendment.
23      Restated articles of organization must be designated as such in the heading and state in the 24      heading or in an introductory paragraph the limited liability company's present name and, if it has 25      been changed, all of its former names and the date of the filing of its initial articles of 1 organization.

2 SECTION 205. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Act a record to be filed by or on 3 behalf of a limited liability company in the Office of the Secretary of State must be signed in the 4 name of the company by a:

- 6 (2) Member of a member-managed company;
- 7 (3) Person organizing the company, if the company has not been formed; or
- 8 (4) Fiduciary, if the company is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-

10 (b) A record signed under subsection (a) must state adjacent to the signature the name and 11 capacity of the signer.

12 (c) Any person may sign a record to be filed under subsection (a) by an attorney-in-fact.
13 Powers of attorney relating to the signing of records to be filed under subsection (a) by an
14 attorney-in-fact need not be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State as evidence of authority 15 by the person filing but must be retained by the company.

16 SECTION 206. (a) Articles of organization or any other record authorized to be filed under 17 this Act must be in a medium permitted by the secretary of state and must be delivered to the 18 Office of the Secretary of State. Unless the secretary of state determines that a record fails to 19 comply as to form with the filing requirements of this Act, and if all filing fees have been paid, 20 the secretary of state shall file the record and send a receipt for the record and the fees to the 21 limited liability company or its representative.

22 (b) Upon request and payment of a fee, the secretary of state shall send to the requester a 23 certified copy of the requested record.

24 (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d), sections 202A and 202B, and subsection
25 207(c), a record accepted for filing by the secretary of state is effective:

(1) At the time of filing on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the secretary of state's date and time endorsement on the original record; or

(2) At the time specified in the record as its effective time on the date it is filed.

(d) A record, including the articles of organization, may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the record becomes effective at the time and date specified subject to the other requirements of this Act. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the record is effective at the close of business on that date. If a delayed effective date is later than the ninetieth day after the record is filed, the record is effective on the ninetieth day.

SECTION 207. (a) A limited liability company or foreign limited liability company may correct a record filed by the secretary of state if the record contains a false or erroneous statement or was defectively signed.

(b) A record is corrected:

(1) By preparing articles of correction that:

(2) By delivering the corrected record to the secretary of state for filing.

(c) Articles of correction are effective retroactively on the effective date of the record they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected record and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

SECTION 208. (a) Any person may request the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a limited liability company or a certificate of authorization for a foreign limited liability company.

1 (b) A certificate of existence for a limited liability company must set forth:

2 (1) The company's name;

3 (2) That it is duly organized under the laws of this state, the date of organization, whether 4 its duration is at-will or for a specified term, and, if the latter, the period specified;

6 affects the existence of the company, that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this 7 state have been paid;

14 (1) The company's name used in this state;

15 (2) That it is authorized to transact business in this state;

16 (3) If payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state and if nonpayment 17 affects the authorization of the company, that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to 18 this state have been paid;

19 (4) Whether its most recent annual report required by section 211 has been filed with the 20 secretary of state;

23 by the applicant.

24 (d) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or 25 authorization issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign limited liability company is in existence or is authorized to transact business in this state.

SECTION 210. If a person required by section 205 to sign any record fails or refuses to do so, any other person who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may petition the state circuit court to direct the signing of the record. If the court finds that it is proper for the record to be signed and that a person so designated has failed or refused to sign the record, it shall order the secretary of state to sign and file an appropriate record.

SECTION 211. (a) A limited liability company, and a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact business in this state, shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an annual report that sets forth:

In excess of $100,000	$150 for first $100,000, plus $.50 for each additional $1,000

The maximum amount charged under this subsection together with any subsequent payments under subsection (b) may not exceed sixteen thousand dollars.

(b) Filing any subsequent annual report that reflects additional contribution in excess of those stated in the last prior report, any additional fee necessary to make the cumulative fee match the cumulative agreed contributions as provided in subsection (a); above the agreed contributions as set forth in the last previous annual report consistent with subsection (a).

(c) A reporting fee of fifty dollars, due and payable with the filing of all annual report, after the first annual report required in section 211(c).

SECTION 301. (a) Subject to subsections (b) and (c):

(1) Each member is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of its business, and an act of a member, including the signing of an instrument in the company's name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the company's business or business of the kind carried on by the company binds the company, unless

1 the member had no authority to act for the company in the particular matter and the 2 person with whom the member was dealing knew or had notice that the member
3 lacked authority.

4 (2) An act of a member which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the 5 company's business or business of the kind carried on by the company binds the 6 company only if the act was authorized by the other members.

7 (b) Subject to subsection (c), in a manager-managed company:

8 (1) A member is not an agent of the company for the purpose of its business solely by 9 reason of being a member. Each manager is an agent of the company for the purpose 10 of its business, and an act of a manager, including the signing of an instrument in the 11 company's name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the company's 12 business or business of the kind carried on by the company binds the company, unless 13 the manager had no authority to act for the company in the particular matter and the 14 person with whom the manager was dealing knew or had notice that the manager
15 lacked authority.

16 (2) An act of a manager which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the 17 company's business or business of the kind carried on by the company binds the 18 company only if the act was authorized under section 404A.

19 (c) Unless the articles of organization limit their authority, any member of a member-20 managed company or manager of a manager-managed company may sign and deliver any 21 instrument transferring or affecting the company's interest in real property. The instrument is 22 conclusive in favor of a person who gives value without knowledge of the lack of the authority 23 of the person signing and delivering the instrument.

24 SECTION 302. A limited liability company is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or 25 for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of

1 a member or manager acting in the ordinary course of business of the company or with authority
2 of the company.

3 SECTION 303. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), the debts, obligations,
4 and liabilities of a limited liability company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, are 5 solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company. A member or manager is not 6 personally liable for a debt, obligation, or liability of the company solely by reason of being or 7 acting as a member or manager.

8 (b) The failure of a limited liability company to observe the usual company formalities or 9 requirements relating to the exercise of its company powers or management of its business is not 10 a ground for imposing personal liability on the members or managers for liabilities of the 11 company.

12 (c) All or specified members of a limited liability company are liable in their capacity as 13 members for all or specified debts, obligations, or liabilities of the company if:

14 (1) A provision to that effect is contained in the articles of organization; and

15 (2) A member so liable has consented in writing to the adoption of the provision or to be 16 bound by the provision.

17 SECTION 401. A contribution of a member of a limited liability company may consist of 18 tangible or intangible property or other benefit to the company, including money, promissory 19 notes, services performed, or other agreements to contribute cash or property, or contracts for 20 services to be performed.

21 SECTION 402. (a) A member's obligation to contribute money, property, or other benefit
22 to, or to perform services for, a limited liability company is not excused by the member's death,
23 disability, or other inability to perform personally. If a member does not make the required 24 contribution of property or services, the member is obligated at the option of the company to 25 contribute money equal to the value of that portion of the stated contribution which has not been

1 made.

2 (b) A creditor of a limited liability company who extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance
3 on an obligation described in subsection (a), and without notice of any compromise under section
4 404A(c)(5), may enforce the original obligation.

5 SECTION 403. (a) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member or manager for 6 payments made and indemnify a member or manager for liabilities incurred by the member or 7 manager in the ordinary course of the business of the company or for the preservation of its 8 business or property.

9 (b) A limited liability company shall reimburse a member for an advance to the company
10 beyond the amount of contribution the member agreed to make.

11 (c) A payment or advance made by a member which gives rise to an obligation of a limited 12 liability company under subsection (a) or (b) constitutes a loan to the company upon which 13 interest accrues from the date of the payment or advance.

14 (d) A member is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for a limited liability
15 company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the business
16 of the company.

17 SECTION 404A. (a) In a member-managed company:

18 (1) Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's 19 business; and

20 (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), any matter relating to the business of 21 the company may be decided by a majority of the members.

22 (b) In a manager-managed company:

23 (1) Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the company's 24 business;

25 (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), any matter relating to the business of

1 the company may be exclusively decided by the manager or, if there is more than one
2 manager, by a majority of the managers; and

3 (3) A manager:

4 (i) Must be designated, appointed, elected, removed, or replaced by a vote,
5 approval, or consent of a majority of the members; and

6 (ii) Holds office until a successor has been elected and qualified, unless the 7 manager sooner resigns or is removed.

8 (c) The only matters of a member- or manager-managed company's business requiring the 9 consent of all of the members are:

10 (1) The amendment of the operating agreement under section 103;

11 (2) The authorization or ratification of acts or transactions under section 103(b)(2)(ii)
12 which would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty;

13 (3) An amendment to the articles of organization under section 204;

14 (4) The compromise of an obligation to make a contribution under section 402(b);

15 (5) The compromise, as among members, of an obligation of a member to make a 16 contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this 17 Act;

18 (6) The making of interim distributions under section 405(a), including the redemption
19 of an interest;

20 (7) The admission of a new member;

21 (8) The use of the company's property to redeem an interest subject to a charging order;

22 (9) The consent to dissolve the company under section 801(a)(2);

23 (10) A waiver of the right to have the company's business wound up and the company
24 terminated under section 802(b);

25 (11) The consent of members to merge with another entity under section 904(c)(1); and

(12) The sale, lease, exchange, or other disposal of all, or substantially all, of the company's property with or without goodwill.

(d) Action requiring the consent of members or managers under this Act may be taken without a meeting.

(e) A member or manager may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member or manager by signing an appointment instrument, either personally or by the member's or manager's attorney-in-fact.

SECTION 404B. Nothing in this Act prohibits the articles of organization from establishing classes or groups of one or more members having certain expressed relative rights, powers, or duties, including voting rights and the articles of organization may provide for the future creation, in the manner provided in the articles of organization, of additional classes or groups of members having certain relative rights, powers, or duties, including voting rights, expressed either in the regulations or at the time of creation. The rights, powers, or duties of a class or group may be senior to those of one or more existing classes or groups of members.

SECTION 405. (a) Any distributions made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding up must be in equal shares.

(b) A member has no right to receive, and may not be required to accept, a distribution in kind.

(c) If a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the member has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.

SECTION 406. (a) A distribution may not be made if:

(1) The limited liability company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business; or

(2) The company's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the

1 amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved, wound up, and 2 terminated at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon 3 dissolution, winding up, and termination of members whose preferential rights are 4 superior to those receiving the distribution.

5 (b) A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited
6 under subsection (a) on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and 7 principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is 8 reasonable in the circumstances.

9 (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e), the effect of a distribution under 10 subsection (a) is measured:

11 (1) In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a 12 distributional interest in a limited liability company, as of the date money or other 13 property is transferred or debt incurred by the company; and

14 (2) In all other cases, as of the date the:

15 (i) Distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within one hundred twenty 16 days after the date of authorization; or

17 (ii) Payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the date
18 of authorization.

19 (d) A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member incurred by reason of a 20 distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the company's indebtedness to 21 its general, unsecured creditors.

22 (e) Indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued in connection
23 with or as part of a distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of determinations under 24 subsection (a) if its terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to 25 the extent that payment of a distribution to members could then be made under this section. If

1 the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest on the
2 indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment
3 is made.

4 SECTION 407. (a) Any member of a member-managed company or a member or manager
5 of a manager-managed company who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of 6 section 406, the articles of organization, or the operating agreement is personally liable to the 7 company for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been 8 distributed without violating section 406, the articles of organization, or the operating agreement
9 if it is established that the member or manager did not perform the member's or manager's duties 10 in compliance with section 409.

11 (b) A member of a manager-managed company who knew a distribution was made in 12 violation of section 406, the articles of organization, or the operating agreement is personally
13 liable to the company, but only to the extent that the distribution received by the member 14 exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under section 406.

15 (c) A member or manager against whom an action is brought under this section may implead 16 in the action all:

17 (1) Other members or managers who voted for or assented to the distribution in violation 18 of subsection (a) and may compel contribution from them; and

19 (2) Members who received a distribution in violation of subsection (b) and may compel 20 contribution from the member in the amount received in violation of subsection (b).

21 (d) A proceeding under this section is barred unless it is commenced within two years after 22 the distribution.

23 SECTION 408. (a) A limited liability company shall provide members and their agents and 24 attorneys access for proper purposes to its records, if any, at the company's principal office or 25 other reasonable locations specified in the operating agreement. The company shall provide

1 former members and their agents and attorneys access for proper purposes to records pertaining
2 to the period during which they were members. The right of access provides the opportunity to
3 inspect and copy records during ordinary business hours. The company may impose a reasonable 4 charge, limited to the costs of labor and material, for copies of records furnished.

5 (b) A limited liability company shall furnish to a member, and to the legal representative of 6 a deceased member or member under legal disability:

7 (1) Without demand, information concerning the company's business or affairs reasonably 8 required for the proper exercise of the member's rights and performance of the 9 member's duties under the operating agreement or this Act; and

10 (2) On demand, other information concerning the company's business or affairs, except 11 to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise 12 improper under the circumstances.

13 (c) A member has the right upon written demand given to the limited liability company to 14 obtain at the company's expense a copy of any written operating agreement.

15 SECTION 409. (a) The only fiduciary duties a member owes to a member-managed 16 company and its other members are the duty of loyalty and the duty of care imposed by 17 subsections (b) and (c).

18 (b) A member's duty of loyalty to a member-managed company and its other members is 19 limited to the following:

20 (1) To account to the company and to hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit 21 derived by the member in the conduct or winding up of the company's business or 22 derived from a use by the member of the company's property, including the 23 appropriation of a company's opportunity;

24 (2) To refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or winding up of the 25 company's business as or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the

1           company; and

2           (3)    To refrain from competing with the company in the conduct of the company's business
3                before the dissolution of the company.

4           (c)   A member's duty of care to a member-managed company and its other members in the 5                conduct of and winding up of the company's business is limited to refraining from engaging in 6                grossly negligent or reckless conduct, intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

7           (d)   A member shall discharge the duties to a member-managed company and its other
8                members under this Act or under the operating agreement and exercise any rights consistently 9                with the obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

10          (e)   A member of a member-managed company does not violate a duty or obligation under 11                this Act or under the operating agreement merely because the member's conduct furthers the 12                member's own interest.

13          (f)   A member of a member-managed company may lend money to and transact other 14                business with the company. As to each loan or transaction, the rights and obligations of the 15                member are the same as those of a person who is not a member, subject to other applicable law.

16          (g)   This section applies to a person winding up the limited liability company's business as the 17                personal or legal representative of the last surviving member as if the person were a member.

18          (h)   In a manager-managed company:

19           (1)   A member who is not also a manager owes no duties to the company or to the other
20                members solely by reason of being a member;

21           (2)   A manager is held to the same standards of conduct prescribed for members in 22                subsections (b) through (f);

23           (3)   A member who pursuant to the operating agreement exercises some or all of the 24                rights of a manager in the management and conduct of the company's business is held 25                to the standards of conduct in subsections (b) through (f) to the extent that the

1 member exercises the managerial authority vested in a manager by this Act; and

2 (4) A manager is relieved of liability imposed by law for violation of the standards
3 prescribed by subsections (b) through (f) to the extent of the managerial authority
4 delegated to the members by the operating agreement.

5 SECTION 410. (a) A member may maintain an action against a limited liability company
6 or another member for legal or equitable relief, with or without an accounting as to the 7 company's business, to enforce:

8 (1) The member's rights under the operating agreement;

9 (2) The member's rights under this Act; and

10 (3) The rights and otherwise protect the interests of the member, including rights and 11 interests arising independently of the member's relationship to the company.

12 (b) The accrual, and any time limited for the assertion, of a right of action for a remedy
13 under this section is governed by other law. A right to an accounting upon a dissolution and 14 winding up does not revive a claim barred by law.

15 SECTION 501. (a) A member is not a co-owner of, and has no transferable interest in,
16 property of a limited liability company.

17 (b) A distributional interest in a limited liability company is personal property and, subject 18 to sections 502 and 503, may be transferred in whole or in part.

19 (c) An operating agreement may provide that a distributional interest may be evidenced by 20 a certificate of the interest issued by the limited liability company and, subject to section 503,
21 may also provide for the transfer of any interest represented by the certificate.

22 SECTION 502. A transfer of a distributional interest does not entitle the transferee to 23 become or to exercise any rights of a member. A transfer entitles the transferee to receive, to the 24 extent transferred, only the distributions to which the transferor would be entitled.

25 SECTION 503. (a) A transferee of a distributional interest may become a member of a

1 limited liability company if and to the extent that the transferor gives the transferee the right in 2 accordance with authority described in the operating agreement or all other members consent.

3 (b) A transferee who has become a member, to the extent transferred, has the rights and 4 powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a member under the operating 5 agreement of a limited liability company and this Act. A transferee who becomes a member also 6 is liable for the transferor member's obligations to make contributions under section 402 and for 7 obligations under section 407 to return unlawful distributions, but the transferee is not obligated
8 for the transferor member's liabilities unknown to the transferee at the time the transferee
9 becomes a member.

10 (c) Whether or not a transferee of a distributional interest becomes a member under 11 subsection (a), the transferor is not released from liability to the limited liability company under 12 the operating agreement or this Act.

13 (d) A transferee who does not become a member is not entitled to participate in the 14 management or conduct of the limited liability company's business, require access to information
15 concerning the company's transactions, or inspect or copy any of the company's records.

16 (e) A transferee who does not become a member is entitled to:

17 (1) Receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would 18 otherwise be entitled;

19 (2) Receive, upon dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company's business:

20 (i) In accordance with the transfer, the net amount otherwise distributable to the 21 transferor;

22 (ii) A statement of account only from the date of the latest statement of account
23 agreed to by all the members;

24 (3) Seek under section 801(a)(5) a judicial determination that it is equitable to dissolve
25 and wind up the company's business.

(f) A limited liability company need not give effect to a transfer until it has notice of the transfer.

SECTION 504. (a) On application by a judgment creditor of a member of a limited liability company or of a member's transferee, a court having jurisdiction may charge the distributional interest of the judgment debtor to satisfy the judgment. The court may appoint a receiver of the share of the distributions due or to become due to the judgment debtor and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries the judgment debtor might have made or which the circumstances may require to give effect to the charging order.

(b) A charging order constitutes a lien on the judgment debtor's distributional interest. The court may order a foreclosure of a lien on a distributional interest subject to the charging order at any time. A purchaser at the foreclosure sale has the rights of a transferee.

(c) At any time before foreclosure, a distributional interest in a limited liability company which is charged may be redeemed:

(1) By the judgment debtor;

(2) With property other than the company's property, by one or more of the other members; or

(3) With the company's property, but only if permitted by the operating agreement.

(d) This Act does not affect a member's right under exemption laws with respect to the member's distributional interest in a limited liability company.

(e) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a judgment creditor of a member or a transferee may satisfy a judgment out of the judgment debtor's distributional interest in a limited liability company.

SECTION 601. A member is dissociated from a limited liability company upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) The company's having notice of the member's express will to withdraw upon the date

1 of notice or on a later date specified by the member;

2 (2) An event agreed to in the operating agreement as causing the member's dissociation;

3 (3) Upon transfer of all of a member's distributional interest, other than a transfer for 4 security purposes or a court order charging the member's distributional interest which 5 has not been foreclosed;

6 (4) The member's expulsion pursuant to the operating agreement;

7 (5) The member's expulsion by unanimous vote of the other members if:

8 (i) It is unlawful to carry on the company's business with the member;

9 (ii) There has been a transfer of substantially all of the member's distributional
10 interest, other than a transfer for security purposes or a court order charging 11 the member's distributional interest which has not been foreclosed;

12 (iii) Within ninety days after the company notifies a corporate member that it will 13 be expelled because it has filed a certificate of dissolution or the equivalent, its 14 charter has been revoked, or its right to conduct business has been suspended
15 by the jurisdiction of its incorporation, the member fails to obtain a revocation 16 of the certificate of dissolution or a reinstatement of its charter or its right to 17 conduct business; or

18 (iv) A partnership or a limited liability company that is a member has been dissolved
19 and its business is being wound up;

20 (6) On application by the company or another member, the member's expulsion by judicial 21 determination because the member:

22 (i) Engaged in wrongful conduct that adversely and materially affected the 23 company's business;

24 (ii) Willfully or persistently committed a material breach of the operating 25 agreement or of a duty owed to the company or the other members under

1 section 409; or

2 (iii) Engaged in conduct relating to the company's business which makes it not
3 reasonably practicable to carry on the business with the member;

4 (7) The member's:

5 (i) Becoming a debtor in bankruptcy;

6 (ii) Executing an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

7 (iii) Seeking, consenting to, or acquiescing in the appointment of a trustee, 8 receiver, or liquidator of the member or of all or substantially all of the 9 member's property; or

10 (iv) Failing, within ninety days after the appointment, to have vacated or stayed the 11 appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the member or of all or 12 substantially all of the member's property obtained without the member's 13 consent or acquiescence, or failing within ninety days after the expiration of a 14 stay to have the appointment vacated;

15 (8) In the case of a member who is an individual:

16 (i) The member's death;

17 (ii) The appointment of a guardian or general conservator for the member; or

18 (iii) A judicial determination that the member has otherwise become incapable of 19 performing the member's duties under the operating agreement;

20 (9) In the case of a member that is a trust or is acting as a member by virtue of being a 21 trustee of a trust, distribution of the trust's entire rights to receive distributions from 22 the company, but not merely by reason of the substitution of a successor trustee;

23 (10) In the case of a member that is an estate or is acting as a member by virtue of being 24 a personal representative of an estate, distribution of the estate's entire rights to 25 receive distributions from the company, but not merely the substitution of a successor

1           personal representative; or

2           (11) Termination of the existence of a member if the member is not an individual, estate,
3           or trust other than a business trust.

4           SECTION 602. (a) Unless otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a member has 5           the power to dissociate from a limited liability company at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by 6           express will pursuant to section 601(1).

7           (b) If the operating agreement has not eliminated a member's power to dissociate, the 8           member's dissociation from a limited liability company is wrongful only if:

9           (1) It is in breach of an express provision of the agreement; or

10          (2) Before the expiration of the term specified in the articles of organization if any:

11           (i) The member withdraws by express will;

12           (ii) The member is expelled by judicial determination under section 601(6);

13           (iii) The member is dissociated by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or

14           (iv) In the case of a member who is not an individual, trust other than a business
15           trust, or estate, the member is expelled or otherwise dissociated because it
16           willfully dissolved or terminated its existence.

17          (c) A member who wrongfully dissociates from a limited liability company is liable to the 18          company and to the other members for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in 19          addition to any other obligation of the member to the company or to the other members.

20          SECTION 603. (a) A limited liability company does not dissolve and wind up its business 21          as result of a member's dissociation.

22          (b) Upon a member's dissociation from a limited liability company:

23           (1) The member's right to participate in the management and conduct of the company's 24           business terminates, except as otherwise provided in section 803, and the member
25           ceases to be a member and is treated the same as a transferee of a member;

(2) The member's duty of loyalty under section 409(b)(3) terminates; and

(3) The member's duty of loyalty under section 409(b)(1) and (2) and duty of care under section 409(c) continue only with regard to matters arising and events occurring before the member's dissociation.

SECTION 604. For two years after a member dissociates without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company's business, the company, including a surviving company under Article 9, is bound by an act of the dissociated member which would have bound the company under section 301 before dissociation only if at the time of entering into the transaction the other party:

(1) Reasonably believed that the dissociated member was then a member;

(2) Did not have notice of the member's dissociation; and

(3) Is not deemed to have had notice under section 605.

SECTION 605. (a) A dissociated member or a limited liability company may file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of dissociation stating the name of the company and that the member is dissociated from the company. If the statement is filed by a dissociated member a copy of the statement must also be delivered to the company by the dissociated member.

(b) For the purposes of sections 301 and 604, a person not a member is deemed to have notice of the dissociation ninety days after the statement of dissociation is filed.

SECTION 801. (a) A limited liability company is dissolved, and its business must be wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(1) An event specified in the operating agreement;

(2) Consent of the number or percentage of members specified in the operating agreement;

(3) An event that makes it unlawful for all or substantially all of the business of the company to be continued, but any cure of illegality within ninety days after notice to

1           the company of the event is effective retroactively to the date of the event for 2           purposes of this section;

3       (4)   On application by a member or a dissociated member, upon entry of a judicial decree 4           that:

5           (i)   The economic purpose of the company is likely to be unreasonably frustrated;

6           (ii)   Another member has engaged in conduct relating to the company's business
7                   that makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the company's business
8                   with that member;

9           (iii)  It is not otherwise reasonably practicable to carry on the company's business
10                   in conformity with the articles of organization and the operating agreement; or

11          (iv)   The managers or members in control of the company have acted, are acting,
12                   or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, fraudulent, or unfairly 13                   prejudicial to the petitioner; or

14       (5)   On application by a transferee of a member's interest, a judicial determination that it
15           is equitable to wind up the company's business after the expiration of a specified
16           duration or event, if the company was for a specified duration at the time the applicant 17           became a transferee by member dissociation, transfer, or entry of a charging order that 18           gave rise to the transfer.

19       SECTION 802. (a) Subject to subsection (b), a limited liability company continues after 20       dissolution only for the purpose of winding up its business.

21       (b) At any time after the dissolution of a limited liability company and before the winding 22       up of its business is completed, the members may unanimously waive the right to have the 23       company's business wound up and the company terminated. In that case:

24       (1)   The limited liability company resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had 25           never occurred and any liability incurred by the company or a member after the

1           dissolution and before the waiver is determined as if the dissolution had never 2           occurred; and

3       (2)   The rights of a third party accruing as a result of the dissolution, under section 804(a),
4           or arising out of conduct in reliance on the dissolution before the third party knew or 5           received a notification of the waiver are not adversely affected.

6       SECTION 803. (a) After dissolution, a member who has not wrongfully dissociated may 7       participate in winding up a limited liability company's business, but on application of any member,
8       member's legal representative, or transferee, the circuit court, for good cause shown, may order
9       judicial supervision of the winding up.

10      (b) A legal representative of the last surviving member may wind up a limited liability
11      company's business.

12      (c) A person winding up a limited liability company's business may preserve the company's 13      business or property as a going concern for a reasonable time, prosecute and defend actions and 14      proceedings, whether civil, criminal, or administrative, settle and close the company's business,

17      perform other necessary acts.

18      SECTION 804. (a) A limited liability company is bound by a member's or manager's act after 19      dissolution that:

20      (1)   Is appropriate for winding up the company's business; or

21      (2)   Would have bound the company under section 301 before dissolution, if the other 22           party to the transaction did not have notice of the dissolution.

23      (b) A member or manager who, with knowledge of the dissolution, subjects a limited liability 24      company to liability by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the company's business is 25      liable to the company for any damage caused to the company arising from the liability.

SECTION 805. (a) At any time after dissolution and winding up, a limited liability company may terminate its existence by filing with the secretary of state articles of termination stating:

- (1) The name of the company;
- (2) The date of the dissolution; and
- (3) That the company's business has been wound up and the legal existence of the company has been terminated.

(b) The existence of a limited liability company is terminated upon the filing of the articles of termination, or upon a later effective date, if specified in the articles of termination.

SECTION 806. (a) In winding up a limited liability company's business, the assets of the company must be applied to discharge its obligations to creditors, including members who are creditors. Any surplus must be applied to pay in money the net amount distributable to members in accordance with their right to distributions under subsection (b).

(b) Each member is entitled to a distribution upon the winding up of the limited liability company's business consisting of a return of all contributions which have not previously been returned and a distribution of any remainder in equal shares.

SECTION 807. (a) A dissolved limited liability company may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

(b) A dissolved limited liability company shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution. The notice must:

- (1) Specify the information required to be included in a claim;
- (2) Provide a mailing address where the claim is to be sent;
- (3) State the deadline for receipt of the claim, which may not be less than one hundred twenty days after the date the written notice is received by the claimant; and
- (4) State that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(c) A claim against a dissolved limited liability company is barred if the requirements of subsection (b) are met, and:

(1) The claim is not received by the specified deadline; or

(2) In the case of a claim that is timely received but rejected by the dissolved company, the claimant does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within ninety days after the receipt of the notice of the rejection.

(d) For purposes of this section, claim does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

SECTION 808. (a) A dissolved limited liability company may publish notice of its dissolution and request persons having claims against the company to present them in accordance with the notice.

(b) The notice must:

(1) Be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the dissolved limited liability company's principal office is located or, if none in this state, in which its registered office is or was last located;

(2) Describe the information required to be contained in a claim and provide a mailing address where the claim is to be sent; and

(3) State that a claim against the limited liability company is barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within five years after publication of the notice.

(c) If a dissolved limited liability company publishes a notice in accordance with subsection (b), the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved company within five years after the publication date of the notice:

(1) A claimant who did not receive written notice under section 807;

(2) A claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved company but not acted on; and

(3) A claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

(d) A claim not barred under this section may be enforced:

SECTION 809. The secretary of state may commence a proceeding to dissolve a limited liability company administratively if the company does not:

(1) Pay any fees, taxes, or penalties imposed by this Act or other law within sixty days after they are due; or

(2) Deliver its annual report to the secretary of state within sixty days after it is due.

SECTION 810. (a) If the secretary of state determines that a ground exists for administratively dissolving a limited liability company, the secretary of state shall enter a record of the determination and serve the company with a copy of the record.

(b) If the company does not correct each ground for dissolution or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by the secretary of state does not exist within sixty days after service of the notice, the secretary of state shall administratively dissolve the company by signing a certification of the dissolution that recites the ground for dissolution and its effective date. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and serve the company with a copy of the certificate.

(c) A company administratively dissolved continues its existence but may carry on only

1 business necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under section 802 and to 2 notify claimants under sections 807 and 808.

3 (d) The administrative dissolution of a company does not terminate the authority of its agent
4 for service of process.

5 SECTION 811. (a) A limited liability company administratively dissolved may apply to the 6 secretary of state for reinstatement after the effective date of dissolution. The application must:

7 (1) Recite the name of the company and the effective date of its administrative 8 dissolution;

9 (2) State that the ground for dissolution either did not exist or have been eliminated;

10 (3) State that the company's name satisfies the requirements of section 105; and 12 by the company have been paid.

13 (b) If the secretary of state determines that the application contains the information required 14 by subsection (a) and that the information is correct, the secretary of state shall cancel the 15 certificate of dissolution and prepare a certificate of reinstatement that recites this determination
16 and the effective date of reinstatement, file the original of the certificate, and serve the company
17 with a copy of the certificate.

18 (c) When reinstatement is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date 19 of the administrative dissolution and the company may resume its business as if the administrative 20 dissolution had never occurred.

21 SECTION 812. (a) If the secretary of state denies a limited liability company's application 22 for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the secretary of state shall serve the 23 company with a record that explains the reason or reasons for denial.

24 (b) The company may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the state circuit court within 25 thirty days after service of the notice of denial is perfected. The company appeals by petitioning

1 the court to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the secretary of
2 state's certificate of dissolution, the company's application for reinstatement, and the secretary
3 of state's notice of denial.

4 (c) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the dissolved company
5 or may take other action the court considers appropriate.

6 (d) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

- 17 (8) If the surviving entity is not a limited liability company, an agreement that the 18 surviving entity may be served with process in this state and is subject to liability in 19 any action or proceeding for the enforcement of any liability or obligation of any

21 for the enforcement, as provided in this Act, of the right of members of any limited
22 liability company to receive payment for their interest against the surviving entity.

23 (b) If a foreign limited liability company is the surviving entity of a merger, it may not do
24 business in this state until an application for that authority is filed with the secretary of state.

25 (c) The surviving limited liability company or other entity shall furnish a copy of the plan of

1 merger, on request and without cost, to any member of any limited liability company or any 2 person holding an interest in any other entity that is to merge.

16 purposes of every limited liability company and other entity that is a party to a merger
17 vest in the surviving entity.

18 (b) The secretary of state is an agent for service of process in an action or proceeding 19 against the surviving foreign entity to enforce an obligation of any party to a merger if the

16       (c) This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a 17 foreign limited liability company to service of process, taxation, or regulation under any other 18 law of this state.

19       SECTION 1004. Unless the secretary of state determines that an application for a certificate
20 of authority fails to comply as to form with the filing requirements of this Act, the secretary of 21 state, upon payment of all filing fees, shall file the application and send a receipt for it and the 22 fees to the limited liability company or its representative.
