SEVENTY-SEVENTH SESSION
LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, 2002

660H0743

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 11

Introduced by: Senators Vitter and Apa and Representatives Teupel and Madsen

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, Designating "Yesterday's Tomorrows" in Deadwood and 2 the Deadwood Adams House Museum.

3 WHEREAS, South Dakota has been and continues to be home to any number of industrious
4 and innovative people who have thought about our state's future; and

5 WHEREAS, the Smithsonian Institution's "Museum on Main Street" program offers a
6 portable exhibition that looks at finding the future in the media, the design of homes, methods
7 of transportation, and community planning; and

8 WHEREAS, the South Dakota Humanities Council selected seven South Dakota 9 communities to host the exhibition in 2002; and

10 WHEREAS, each of these communities will examine and celebrate the ways in which their 11 residents over the years have envisioned the future through auxiliary displays and events during 12 their hosting which will involve countless numbers of visitors and residents; and

13 WHEREAS, Deadwood and the Deadwood Adams House Museum is one of those 14 communities on the tour:

15 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate of the Seventy-seventh Legislature

1 of the State of South Dakota, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that September 2
2 - October 4, 2002, be named "Yesterday's Tomorrows" in Deadwood and the Deadwood Adams
3 House Museum.
