

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 8

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, Designating "Yesterday's Tomorrows" in the city of Hill City.

WHEREAS, South Dakota has been and continues to be home to any number of industrious and innovative people who have thought about our state's future; and

WHEREAS, the Smithsonian Institution's "Museum on Main Street" program offers a portable exhibition that looks at finding the future in the media, the design of homes, methods of transportation, and community planning; and

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Humanities Council selected seven South Dakota communities to host the exhibition in 2002; and

WHEREAS, each of these communities will examine and celebrate the ways in which their residents over the years have envisioned the future through auxiliary displays and events during their hosting which will involve countless numbers of visitors and residents; and

WHEREAS, the city of Hill City is one of those communities on the tour:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate of the Seventy-seventh Legislature of the State of South Dakota, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that July 22 - August 23, 2002, be named "Yesterday's Tomorrows" in the city of Hill City.

Adopted by the Senate,
Concurred in by the House of Representatives,

February 01, 2002
February 05, 2002

Carole Hillard
President of the Senate

Patricia Adam
Secretary of the Senate

Scott Eccarius
Speaker of the House

Karen Gerdes
Chief Clerk of the House