3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

4 Section 1. That § 22-1-2 be AMENDED:

5 22-1-2. Definitions.

6 Terms used in this title mean:

- 7 (1) If applied to the intent with which an act is done or omitted:
- 8 (a) The words, "malice, maliciously," and all derivatives thereof import a wish to 9 intentionally vex, annoy, or injure another person, established either by proof 10 or presumption of law;
- 11 (b) The words, "intent, intentionally," and all derivatives thereof, import a 12 specific design to cause a certain result or, if the material part of a charge is 13 the violation of a prohibition against conduct of a certain nature, regardless 14 of what the offender intends to accomplish thereby, a specific design to 15 engage in conduct of that nature;
- 16 (c) The words, "knowledge, knowingly," and all derivatives thereof, import only 17 a knowledge that the facts exist which bring the act or omission within the 18 provisions of any statute. A person has knowledge if that person is aware 19 that the facts exist which bring the act or omission within the provisions of 20 any statute. Knowledge of the unlawfulness of such act or omission is not 21 required;
- 22 (d) The words, "reckless, recklessly," and all derivatives thereof, import a 23 conscious and unjustifiable disregard of a substantial risk that the offender's 24 conduct may cause a certain result or may be of a certain nature. A person 25 is reckless with respect to circumstances if that person consciously and 26 unjustifiably disregards a substantial risk that such circumstances may exist;

- 1 (e) The words, "neglect, negligently," and all words derived thereof, import a 2 want of attention to the nature or probable consequences of an act or 3 omission which a prudent person ordinarily bestows in acting in his or her 4 own concerns;
- 5 (f) If the section defining an offense provides that negligence suffices to establish 6 an element thereof, then recklessness, knowledge, intent, or malice also 7 constitutes sufficient culpability for such element. If recklessness suffices to 8 establish an element of the offense, then knowledge, intent or malice also 9 constitutes sufficient culpability for such element. If knowledge suffices to 10 establish an element of an offense, then intent or malice also constitutes 11 sufficient culpability for such element. If intent suffices to establish an 12 element of an offense, then malice also constitutes sufficient culpability for 13 such element;
- 14 (2) "Actor," the person who takes the active part in a transaction;
- 15 (3) "Affirmative defense," an issue involving an alleged defense to which, unless the 16 state's evidence raises the issue, the defendant, to raise the issue, must present
17 some credible evidence. If the issue involved in an affirmative defense is raised, 18 then the guilt of the defendant must be established beyond a reasonable doubt as 19 to that issue as well as all other elements of the offense;
- 20 (4) "Antique firearm," any firearm, including any firearm with a matchlock, flintlock, 21 percussion cap or similar type of ignition system, manufactured before 1899, and
