Brand Board Legislative Report for Calendar Year 2024

The South Dakota State Brand Board operates on funds generated from the brand registration program and the brand inspection program. The Brand Board does not receive any general fund appropriations. The livestock ownership inspection area in South Dakota is west of the Missouri River. Any livestock leaving this inspection area must have a livestock ownership inspection or transportation permit prior to leaving. Livestock sold at livestock markets in western SD are inspected for ownership when they arrive at the markets. Livestock sold privately must also have ownership inspections. The registration and the use of brands apply to the entire state. Members of the Brand Board are appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. Each term is a 3-year term. Brand Board members in 2024 were Scott Vance, Faith; Myron Williams, Wall; Lyle Spring, Union Center; Haven Stuck, Rapid City and Jake Longbrake, Dupree. The Brand Board employees full time brand inspectors, which are stationed at 10 livestock markets in western SD, part-time/local brand inspectors, office staff, and brand enforcement/livestock investigators.

Livestock Inspections

In CY (calendar year) 2024 a total of 1,615,013 head of livestock were inspected. This is an increase of 60,017 head from 2023. When livestock are sold without proof of ownership, the funds are held in trust until the seller provides proof of ownership. Forty-one holds were submitted to the Brand Board office as the sellers did not provide proof of ownership. This is down from the 72 holds received in 2023. Table 1 shows the inspections by month for each category. Table 2, which lists CY 2023 information, is included for comparison purposes. Some of the reported numbers are subject to change as data may be received in the brand office after the completion of this report.

Deposits for Inspection Receipts

Monthly inspection receipts, from fees paid by producers and collected at livestock markets and local inspections, are shown in Table 4. Fees collected for locker plants and feedlot inspections are included in the livestock market totals. The $1.00 per head livestock ownership inspection fee was set in 2013. The current mileage rate is $0.67/mile and is published by the Bureau of Finance and Management effective October first of each year per SDCL 3-9-1. The inspection receipts listed below do not include the mileage fees collected for local inspections. The brand inspectors are reimbursed mileage at the rate of $0.67/mile. The CY 2023 fees are included for comparison purposes.

Missing or Stolen Livestock

The number of livestock reported missing or stolen statewide in CY 24 was 610 head. This is a sizable decrease – down 556 head from reports in CY 23. The head count and type of livestock reported missing or stolen in CY 24 are listed in Table 5. The numbers reported for CY 23 are listed in Table 6. Some of the livestock reported missing or stolen may be the result of a civil dispute between producers, lenders taking possession of their security, or livestock may have died. Livestock, which has been found or recovered may have been found by the owner, brand inspectors, livestock investigators or other law enforcement officials. Producers who believe their livestock have been stolen should contact their local law enforcement immediately.

The Brand Board works with other law enforcement agencies on missing/stolen livestock cases. Although the Brand Board's investigators do not have jurisdiction on tribal ground, they assist tribal agencies when requested.

Recovered Strays

Brand inspectors recover stray livestock while conducting local brand inspections or inspecting livestock at livestock markets. Table 7 below shows the number and type of livestock recovered during inspections completed for years 2020 thru 2024. In 2024, approximately $1.2 million of livestock were recovered by brand inspectors.

Brand Board Holds

A hold is placed on livestock sale proceeds if proof of ownership has not been established by the seller of the livestock or the livestock was an estray. Prior to sending the proceeds to the Brand Board office, sellers are given 60 days, after the sale date, to prove ownership. Brand inspectors assist sellers to resolve the hold. If proof of ownership has not been provided after 60 days, the funds are submitted to the Brand Board and held as “Restricted Funds”. Although the seller is responsible to provide proof of ownership, staff in the Brand Board Office conduct additional research in an attempt to resolve the hold. Holds, which have been submitted to the Brand Board office, are shown below in Table 8. If a hold was for an estray, brand board staff review grazing reports, missing livestock reports, obtain information from Animal Industry and from brand offices, in surrounding states, to try to determine the owner. A listing of Holds Received, Paid, Pending, and transferred to Unrestricted in the Theft Prevention Fund during 2024 are included in the Appendix of this report.

Livestock Investigations:

If someone believes their livestock have been stolen, they should contact their local law enforcement immediately. The Brand Board assists local law enforcement statewide in the investigation of missing or stolen livestock. Although Brand Board livestock investigators are certified law enforcement, they are limited to the authority under 40-18-14. SDCL Chapter 22-30A, Theft, includes livestock, so livestock theft cases would inevitably have to be filed under SDCL 22-30, which Brand Board investigators currently have no authority to enforce. Many reports of missing livestock are civil cases. Violations of brand laws and livestock ownership inspection laws are submitted to State's Attorneys by the Brand Board investigators. The State's Attorneys make the determination to file charges. Expenses for the brand enforcement/investigators are paid from the Brand Fund. In 2024, two livestock investigators were stationed in the western part of the livestock ownership inspection area, and one was in the south-central part of the livestock inspection area. The investigators work with local law enforcement and livestock investigators in other states.

Brand Program

The Brand Board is also responsible for brand registrations, transfers, brand renewals, shipper permits, grazing permits, and trailing permits. Table 10 shows the main brand program revenue for 2024 and 2023. Brands are renewed every five years. The next renewal period is January 1 - May 1, 2025. Brand owners have the option of renewing their brand registrations online. If a brand owner does not renew their brand by May 1st of the renewal year, the brand owner can pay a record fee, within two years, to re-record their brand. The brand book is online and can be found on the Brand Board's website sdbrandboard.sd.gov

Summary

The Brand Board, along with other agricultural groups, participated in three ad hoc meetings hosted by the Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources in 2023. During these meetings, an agriculture group requested an audit of the Brand Board's financials. The Brand Board uses the State's accounting system with invoices paid thru the State Auditor's office and funds deposited with the State Treasurer's office. In November 2023, Legislative Audit requested information to begin their internal control review. Their findings were issued February 6, 2024. This report can be found at Brand Board Fiscal Years 2023 and 2022 Internal Control Review. As the Brand Board uses the State's accounting system, the Board's financial transactions are included in the State's Annual Comprehensive Financial Report. This report is located at https://bfm.sd.gov/ACFR/SD_ACFR_2024.PDF#view=fit.

The function of the livestock ownership inspection program is to ensure sellers own the livestock they have presented for sale, and that livestock being shipped, out of the inspection area, are owned by shipper. The Brand Inspectors recovered $1.2 million in stray livestock during 2024.

Without brand inspections, anyone could sell livestock without providing evidence of ownership. In CY 2024, there were $97,567.12 worth of livestock sold which the sellers did not provide proof of ownership on. These funds were receipted into the Theft Prevention Fund as Restricted Funds - pending proof of ownership. When the seller provides proof of ownership, funds are released to them. If ownership is not established after one year, per SDCL 40-21-17, the Board may transfer the funds to unrestricted funds within the Theft Prevention Fund and these funds can be used for Livestock Ownership Inspection Program expenses.

The operating cost of the inspection program for FY 24 was $1.34 per head. Since 2013, the Brand Board has operated on the $1.00 /head inspection fee. The Brand Board does not receive any general fund appropriations. The Board used carryover Brand Inspection Funds, to cover operating expenses rather than bringing legislation for an inspection fee increase.

The structure of having Brand Inspection District Supervisors has improved the strength of the brand inspection program. Regional training meetings were held during 2024 and District Supervisors answer calls from the public and inspectors.

Currently, there are 28,181 registered brands in South Dakota. Brand registrations are renewed every five years. This fee is $90.00 or equals $18.00/year.

The Brand Board members and staff are dedicated to serving the producers of the State of South Dakota.
