RE: SD Board of Regents annual report on intellectual diversity and free exchange of ideas

Dear Governor Noem and Legislators,

This correspondence is in furtherance of the Board of Regent's compliance with SDCL § 13-53-53, which requires the Board of Regents, on or before December first of each year, to prepare and submit to the Governor and each member of the legislature a report that:

- (1) Sets forth all actions taken by each institution to promote and ensure intellectual diversity and the free exchange of ideas; and
- (2) Describes any events or occurrences that impeded intellectual diversity and the free exchange of ideas.

The attached report covers the period from November 1, 2019 – October 31, 2020.

While the report reflects an abundance of activity on our campuses over the last year, I would be remiss to ignore the impacts of COVID-19. As you might imagine, the number of in-person activities were down, with many events conducted via remote technology and some simply cancelled. In addition, the challenges brought about by conducting operations in the midst of a pandemic certainly detracted effort and energy from a host of areas, and intellectual diversity activities were no exception. I say that not to diminish the importance of intellectual diversity, or even to make excuses, but rather to recognize the unprecedented obstacles encountered by our campuses over the last seven months and the toll it's taken on nearly every facet of operations.

Collegially,

Executive Director & CEO
South Dakota Board of Regents

Annual Report on Intellectual Diversity and Free Exchange of Ideas

(November 1, 2019 – October 31, 2020)

(1) Actions taken by each institution to promote and ensure intellectual diversity and the free exchange of ideas.

The following actions were taken by each of BHSU, DSU, NSU, SDSM&T, SDSU and USD:

- In Spring 2020, the campuses issued the Skyfactor campus climate survey to students. Across the system 23,653 students were issued the survey and 3,554 students responded. The system office worked with a representative from the American Council of Trustees and Alumni (ACTA) to help formulate questions related to intellectual diversity, and then consulted with Skyfactor on the best way to ask the questions in their survey format. The five selected questions that each university was required to ask related to intellectual diversity are provided below and a brief summary of the findings is included.
- The survey results showed that most students (67.1%) do not feel silenced at all from sharing their views, and only 7.2% of respondents felt that faculty at their institution did not respect their free speech rights. 25% of respondents did not feel comfortable expressing their political views with faculty. 41.9% of the students agreed that it was important for them to enroll in courses specifically designed to enhance their knowledge of different political views.

Q1. To what extent do you agree with the following statement?: The culture at this institution discourages students from saying things they believe, because others may find them offensive.

- 43% of respondents Disagreed or Strongly Disagreed
- 12% of respondents Mildly Disagree
- 20.1% of respondents are Neutral
- 12.1% of respondents Mildly Agree
- 12.8% of respondents Agree or Strongly Agree

Q2. To what extent do you agree with the following statement?: During my time as a student at this institution, I have felt silenced from sharing my views.

- 57.1% of respondents Disagreed or Strongly Disagreed
- 10% of respondents Mildly Disagree
- 13.7% of respondents are Neutral
- 9.2% of respondents Mildly Agree
- 10% of respondents Agree or Strongly Agree

Q3. To what extent do you agree with the following statement?: Faculty at my institution respect free speech rights.

- 3.6% of respondents Disagreed or Strongly Disagreed
- 3.6% of respondents Mildly Disagree
- 12.3% of respondents are Neutral

- 11.8% of respondents Mildly Agree
- 68.7% of respondents Agree or Strongly Agree

Q4. To what extent do you agree with the following statement?: I feel comfortable expressing my political views with faculty.

- 14.8% of respondents Disagreed or Strongly Disagreed
- 9.2% of respondents Mildly Disagree
- 24.6% of respondents are Neutral
- 15.3% of respondents Mildly Agree
- 36.1% of respondents Agree or Strongly Agree

Q5. To what extent do you agree with the following statement?: As a student, it is important to me to enroll in courses designed specifically to enhance my knowledge of different political perspectives.

- 19.7% of respondents Disagreed or Strongly Disagreed
- 8% of respondents Mildly Disagree
- 30.4% of respondents are Neutral
- 11.6% of respondents Mildly Agree
- 30.3% of respondents Agree or Strongly Agree

- In response to changes in Title IX regulations at the federal level the Board of Regents (“BOR”) policies, which are applicable to each institution, were revamped at the BOR’s August meeting. The following policy revisions were directly relevant to intellectually diversity and the free exchange of ideas:
 - BOR Policy 1:17 (Sexual Harassment) included a revision to the definition of “sexual harassment” which shifted from the prior “...severe or pervasive...” standard to the “...severe, pervasive, and objectionably offensive...” standard. BOR Policy 1:17 received a “green” speech code rating by The Foundation for Individual Rights in Education (“FIRE”) on September 18, 2020.
 - BOR Policy 3:4 (Student Conduct Code) included a revision to the definition of “harassment” which shifted from the prior “...severe or pervasive...” standard to the “severe, pervasive, and objectionably offensive...” standard, in addition to mirroring the sexual harassment shift noted above in BOR Policy 1:17. BOR Policy 3:4 received a “green” speech code rating by FIRE on September 18, 2020.
- The universities compiled a list of speakers on campus, which is set forth in Attachment I.

In addition to the foregoing, the following actions were taken by the respective campuses.

BHSU

- A comprehensive BHSU Policy and Procedure web site is active with many policies added and more underway. Of relevance to intellectual diversity:
 - 2:12 Syllabus Policy which requires a “Freedom in Learning” statement

- 3:2 Campus-Wide Posting
- 4:3 Equal Opportunity, Non Discrimination and Affirmative Action
- 4:8 Human Rights Complaints - this policy has not yet been posted but is under development
- 9:3 Freedom of Speech and Use of Institutional Facilities and Grounds for Expression & Demonstration

- Lighthouse Services Subscription for Anonymous Reporting

Black Hills State University has a partnership with Lighthouse Services, Inc. to provide an anonymous ethics and compliance hotline for reporting possible ethics and Title IX violations. The current agreement goes from March 16, 2020 through March 16, 2021. Online private and confidential reports can be made at Lighthouse. That link is accessible from the HR and Title IX pages (go to <https://www.bhsu.edu/President/Title-IX/Report-Incident>, and follow the link under “Confidential Reporting Options”). Reports can also be made over the phone via a toll-free hotline at 844-390-0005 (English speaking) or 800-216-1288 (Spanish speaking). Lighthouse is an off-campus company who specializes in providing independent third-party ethics hotline services and people may choose to remain anonymous when providing information to them.

- Curricula Offered:

- HIST 121 Western Civilization I, covers the study of Greece and Rome. It is a general education option and a required course in the major.
- HIST 322 Ancient Greece and Rome, is an elective in the major which is offered every other year.
- POLS 430, Constitutional Law, is an elective in the political science major. This course follows a conventional approach that does not assume either a liberal or conservative point of view.
- POLS 100 American Government and POLS 210 State and Local Government provides an overview of constitutional history.
- POLS 263 Introduction to Political Theory pulls from some of canonical works of political theory and philosophy.

- Title IX Compliance

- BHSU completely redesigned its Title IX/Equal Opportunity webpage thereby offering multiple options to report concerns and/or make contact with conflict resolution resources.
- Simplified private reporting is available through Information Report web form.

- All South Dakota College/University Women Presidents co-signed an Op-ed piece (attached) which ran in state-wide daily and weekly newspapers on or after August 18, 2020. The op-ed piece was entitled, The Right to Vote, The Right to Lead-

---An Open Letter Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Ratification of the 19th Amendment.

- BHSU hosted a conference on Friday, October 23, 2020: Celebrating 100 years of Women’s Suffrage in South Dakota. SDSM&T and AAUW-RC Chapter were major partners in hosting the event. Approximately 70 registered and attended.

- Institutional Member of AASCU’s American Democracy Project
 - A key initiative for membership institutions is the Voter Education and Engagement initiative. This initiative focuses on comprehensive strategies to ensure that all areas are actively working to increase informed political engagement of our students. According to the National Study of Learning, Voting, and Engagement report, American Democracy Project (ADP) campuses have the highest voter turnout rates of all higher education. As a comparison, the national voter turnout rate for youth 18–29 was 46% and the national average for undergraduate students was 50.7%. ADP campuses had a voter turnout rate of at least 52%.
 - To implement the ADP at BHSU, the Human Services/Sociology Club held a voter-registration drive-thru on October 10 from 9-3. The event was held both on the Spearfish campus and at BHSU-RC Center. Students drove into a designated parking lot and received a voter registration packet with an option to fill it out and leave the registration or take it with them.
 - The College Republicans and College Democrats have also participated in voter registration through tables in the Student Union to collect student registration forms.
 - And to inform student voters before the election, the College Republicans held a watch party for the first Presidential debate while the Student Senate’s Civic Engagement Committee hosted a District 31 House Candidate Forum on October 20 at 7:00pm via Zoom (and livestreamed over Facebook). All three District 31 candidates participated.

- External Ranking and First Amendment Rights
 - We monitor our BHSU ranking with the FIRE organization (Foundation for Individual Rights in Education). Recently our Student Organization Manual was updated to address certain FIRE objections around free speech policy and campus posting policy.
 - BHSU guide to First Amendment Rights On Campus (presented via this quick link on the BHSU webpage).

- Campus climate survey

During Spring 2020, BHSU conducted two Campus Climate assessments—one for students and one for employees using the SkyFactor Campus Climate Safety and Sexual Assault Assessment. The survey focused upon four important campus topics:

- Perceptions of the campus related to the ability to assess diversity, inclusiveness, visibility, equity, safety, and treatment;
- Personal attitudes and behaviors related to working with people from diverse backgrounds;
- Perceptions of institutional policies, procedures, and training in compliance with Title IX (sexual assault and harassment); and
- Perceptions of measures and satisfaction with the institution.

Regarding the Student assessment, BHSU surveyed 825 students representing a 26% completion rate. Of the 14 factors, BHSU demonstrated a statistically higher mean for the following five factors: Perceptions of the Institution, Personal Attitudes and Behaviors, Campus Safety, Campus Training, and Campus Learning. BHSU possessed statistically lower mean for the following three factors: Visibility, Co-Curricular Environment, and Sexual Assault. Considering high impact and low performance, the assessment indicated we make it top priority to increase efforts in these areas: Perceptions of Peers, Perceptions of Administration, and Co-Curricular Environment.

Regarding the Employee assessment, BHSU surveyed 309 faculty/staff members representing a 67% completion rate. Of the 15 factors, BHSU demonstrated a statistically higher mean for the following seven factors: Visibility, Perceptions of Faculty, Perceptions of Students, Campus Accessibility, Campus Safety, Individual Response to Sexual Assault, and Institutional Response to Sexual Assault. BHSU did not possess any statistically lower means than the mean of the comparative group. Nonetheless, considering high impact and low performance, the assessment made recommendation for improvements to increase efforts in these areas: Perceptions of Institution, and Perceptions of Administration. Performance on these factors is below goal value and improvement of these factors should impact Overall Perceptions.

BHSU took prompt and broad measures to share the results of the assessments with campus constituents. A special Campus Climate Survey Results web page was developed that presents the results in executive summary format. Additionally, a special town-hall meeting occurred in September whereby over 340 attended. Department Deans and Chairs received custom instructions and access to the SkyFactor dashboard so they too can analyze and determine improvement strategies for their specific areas. Staff Council and Student Council have already instituted changes based on the recommendations from the assessment.

- Events on Campus

- Numerous events have been held on campus to promote intellectual diversity. Please see attached spreadsheet for more specific topics.

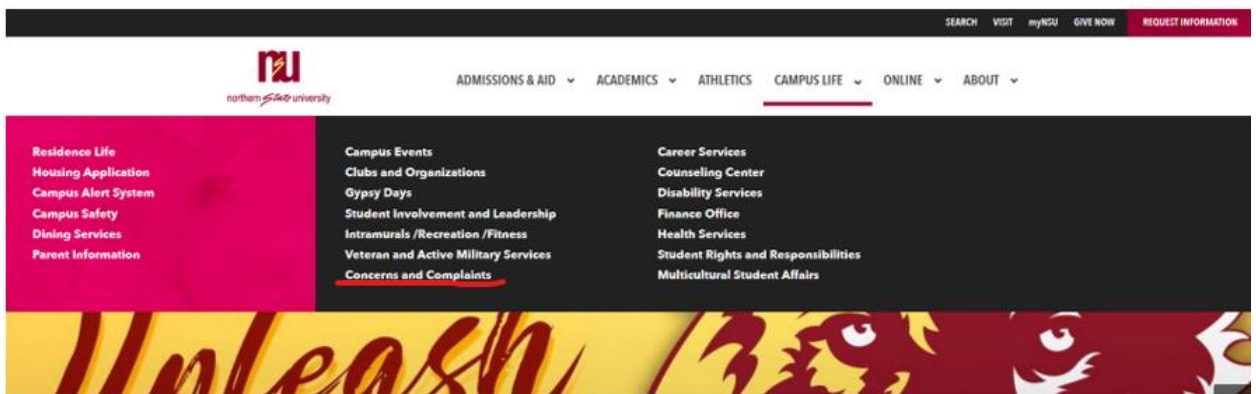

DSU

- Campus administration discussed the issue and need to better promote intellectual diversity in the all-faculty meeting on August 13.
- Campus administration discussed intellectual diversity and reporting requirements at meeting of campus deans on September 8.
- Campus administration discussed intellectual diversity and reporting requirements at meeting of campus diversity committee on September 16. Issues addressing the acceptance of all perspectives (e.g., confederate flag displays) were discussed as well as what constitutes free speech for mask/face covering messaging. Also discussed was the limits on political campaigning by state employees while on the job.
- DSU added two items to its Ruffalo Noel Levitz Student Satisfaction Inventory to be administered in the spring semester addressing intellectual diversity: (1) Faculty respect my viewpoints; and (2) Faculty present diverse perspectives in course materials. Data has not as yet been analyzed. These questions will remain on the survey to be administered in fall 2021.
- Continued to work on the DSU Faculty Handbook to include a section on free speech, freedom in learning and professional ethics and will include the following statement: To secure student freedom in learning, faculty members in the classroom and in seminar should encourage free and orderly discussion, inquiry and expression of the course subject matter. Student performance may be evaluated solely on an academic basis, not on opinions or conduct in matters unrelated to academic standards. Students should be free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study and to reserve judgment about matters of opinion, but they are responsible for learning the content of any course of study for which they are enrolled. This is under review this academic year for adoption by July 2021.
- DSU is in the process of revising policies and incident reporting structures related to free speech, to include reviewing its status and best practices material on the FIRE website. Revised policies will be presented to the campus before the end of the fall 2020 semester.

NSU

- A prominent link for Concerns and Complaints was maintained on the NSU website. This link is located at the top of the CAMPUS LIFE page, which is in the top navigation bar of the homepage, <https://www.northern.edu/>. No complaints related to intellectual diversity were received.

- NSU participated in the Skyfactor survey coordinated by the Board of Regents. This survey included five questions for all BOR institutions related to intellectual diversity. While the survey results for all BOR institutions are being provided to the Legislature, it is instructive to look at the NSU results for one of the questions on intellectual diversity. For the question, “To what extent do you agree with the following statement: Faculty at my institution respect free speech rights?” A large majority of NSU students agreed with this statement. 77.7% of students strongly agreed, agreed, or mildly agreed with this statement, with 62.9% of students either agreeing or strongly agreeing. 7.4% of students were “neutral.” 11.1% of students mildly disagreed with this statement, while 3.7% of students disagreed. No students strongly disagreed with this statement. These results confirm that a large majority of NSU students believe that their faculty respect free speech rights. President Downs gave a presentation on the Skyfactor survey results to the campus community on October 26, 2020.
- NSU celebrated the U.S. Constitution on Constitution Day, September 17, 2020.
 - U.S. flags (courtesy of the Exchange Club) displayed in Student Center, Library, and Technology Center.
 - The League of Women Voters registered people to vote in the Student Center.
 - U.S. military recruiters had table in the Student Center (new).
 - Office of Student Success passed out copies of the Bill of Rights (new).
 - TV monitors around campus ran the Constitution Day graphic (new).
 - Professor Jon Schaff spoke to group in New Jersey via Zoom on the Constitution (new).
 - Student Affairs decorated Student Center mall.
 - The Exponent student newspaper ran a piece on Constitution Day.
 - The Exchange Club posted several hundred US flags around Aberdeen.
 - There was a link on NSU website to a copy of the Constitution, Constitution Fun Facts, and a Constitution Trivia Game.

- NSU News ran a notice about Constitution Day for a couple of weeks.
 - Emails went out to the College of Arts and Sciences to encourage students, administrators, staff, and faculty to dress and decorate offices in red, white, and blue. Many people did so.
 - A press release was made announcing Constitution Day on the NSU campus, with Professor Ric Dias interviewed by Hub City Radio.
 - Emails were sent to College of Arts and Sciences faculty to work Constitution Day into their classes.
 - Dakota Prairie Museum put out two displays in the Student Center.
 - Food Services had some special themed food in the Den.
 - The main entry foyer of Lincoln Hall was decorated in a patriotic theme with the US flag.
- NSU celebrated the 100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution, August 26, 2020. This amendment gave women the right to vote in the United States. To commemorate this event, the University organized a celebratory march through campus which culminated with a re-enactment of a famous speech from the era on the steps of Lincoln Hall. The League of Women Voters helped students register to vote. Displays of period artifacts from the Dakota Prairie Museum, along with cartoons and posters from the era, were set up in the Avera Student Center the entire week of Aug. 24. A poster contest to get out the vote was ongoing; posters were displayed in the Red Rooster Coffee House community room in downtown Aberdeen. Poster award-winners were announced on Constitution Day, Sept. 17. The Aberdeen News covered the event with an online news article.

- NSU again received the Military Friendly School Distinction for 2020. The Military Friendly® Schools list provides a comprehensive guide for veterans and their families using data sources from federal agencies, veteran students and proprietary survey information from participating organizations. At Northern, student veterans and students currently serving in the military can receive assistance with issues such as receiving educational benefits, tutoring, getting a copy of class schedules or getting a copy of military transcripts. Northern also has a dedicated staff member who helps with military education benefits. Other resources include the NSU Student Veteran Resource Center.

- Northern student Steven Meyer restarted NSU's chapter of College Republicans. The group has already grown to 30 members. Membership provides a lot of opportunities for students, he said, as the South Dakota Federation of College Republicans often sends information about internship and scholarship opportunities. For students who might be waiting until after college to be politically active, Meyer points out there are a lot of topics that concern younger students, including education funding, taxes, free speech and the second amendment.

- NSU Professor Jon Schaff published an article and book chapter on the Lincoln Presidency.
 - Schaff’s article, “Lincoln’s Domestic Policy: Toward a More Modest Conception of the Presidency,” was published in the spring 2020 edition of the journal Lincoln Lore. In the article, Schaff argues that while being a strong war president, Lincoln was largely deferential to congress on other matters. This article is a summation of an argument Schaff makes in his book, Abraham Lincoln’s Statesmanship and the Limits of Liberal Democracy, published in July 2019. Schaff also published a chapter, “The American Constitution and Statesmanship: An Argument From Lincoln,” in the book, From Reflection & Choice: The Political Philosophy of the Federalist Papers and Ratification Debate, published in March by Mercer University Press. Schaff’s chapter asserts that the framers of the Constitution put too much faith in properly constructed institutions as a protection of natural rights; the lesson from Lincoln is that a statesman is also needed to give a poetic defense of those rights. Schaff was also recently awarded a competitive research grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to fund his book-length research project, “A More Perfect Union: Jefferson, Hamilton, and Lincoln and America's Unfinished Work.”

- NSU launched the new Native and Indigenous Studies minor. The new minor is an interdisciplinary program featuring Lakota language classes, experiential learning opportunities including a traveling classroom, and new courses in Native Identity and Resiliency, Global Indigenous Media, and Federal Indian Law. The American Indian Advisory Committee (AIAC), led by Lara Nelson, Director of the American Indian Circle Program, and comprised of students, faculty, administrators, and community members worked together to revise a dormant American Indian Studies minor into an engaging, interdisciplinary minor. Nelson said the new minor will offer a diverse range of academic subjects that will appeal to Native and non-Native students. Students can add the minor in Native and Indigenous Studies to any major. The 18 credits will give them a more robust cultural lens that is inclusive of the fastest growing demographic segment of South Dakota and the region. “Northern’s Native and Indigenous Studies minor helps students draw connections among local Native American experiences and global indigenous cultures on a broad range of topics,” Nelson said. “The faculty teaching courses in the minor come from different disciplines – sociology, communication studies, history, and law, which ensures our approach is interdisciplinary.”

- South Dakota Secretary of State Steve Barnett visited NSU on September 22, 2020 for National Voter Registration Day. He conducted a voter registration drive on campus in collaboration with the Brown County Auditor’s Office.

SDSM&T

SDSM&T continues to include a statement in all course syllabi related to intellectual diversity.

The ongoing efforts of SDSM&T to increase knowledge and awareness around intellectual diversity on campus previously reported have resulted in an increase in student organization activity on campus.

- In spring of 2020, the Young Americans for Liberty student organization was award funding for the 2020-2021 academic year and they held their first event this fall at the O’Harra Stadium.
- The South Dakota Mines Students for Life group is currently going through the process to become an officially recognized student organization.

SDSU

South Dakota State University (SDSU) is committed to upholding the First Amendment. During the 2019 legislative session, legislation was passed to clarify First Amendment protections on University campuses and promote intellectual diversity. As a result, SDSU increased efforts to promote First Amendment rights and addressed intellectual diversity in a variety of ways. SDSU continues to review and enhance training and communications related to intellectual diversity.

Review of Policies: New or Revised University Policies

SDSU's Office of General Counsel reviewed policies and procedures at SDSU to ensure alignment with all revised SDBOR Policies and applicable SD and federal laws. Policies have been vetted through our shared governance structure and with the campus community prior to their adoption.

Recently Adopted:

February 9, 2020 Facilities and Grounds Use and Scheduling (6:7) – Revised

May 12, 2020 Course Syllabus (2:3) – Revised

September 25, 2020 Use of University Facilities and Grounds for Expressive Activity by Student Organizations, Students, Employees, and their Guests (6:8) – Revised

October 13, 2020 Campus-Wide Posting (6:9) – Revised

Currently in Progress: Revised Human Rights Complaints (4:6); DRAFT Commitment to Freedom of Expression; other SDSU and departmental policies and procedures.

Summary of Campus Climate Assessment

In fall 2016, South Dakota State University (SDSU) established the Campus Climate Committee to select an assessment tool to evaluate the campus climate. Beginning in spring 2017, SDSU implemented a nationally normed Campus Climate assessment. The Skyfactor Campus Climate, Safety, and Sexual Assault Assessment measures 15 dimensions of faculty, staff, and students' perception and satisfaction with the institution. In particular, the survey focuses on:

- Perceptions of the institution related to diversity, inclusiveness, visibility, equity, and safety.
- Personal attitudes and behaviors related to working with people from diverse backgrounds.

- Perceptions of institutional policies, procedures, and training in compliance with Title IX (sexual assault and harassment).
- Overall measures of learning and satisfaction with the institution.

In addition, there are items specific to perceptions of free speech and intellectual diversity.

The results from this assessment help drive institutional improvements and direct strategic university initiatives to create a welcoming campus climate for all stakeholders. The University is committed to administering this assessment every two years to university employees and currently enrolled students. SDSU has administered the Campus Climate survey in 2017, 2019, and 2020. The next administration scheduled for spring 2022. While proprietary information cannot be publicly available, annual summary reports are shared with the campus.

Complaint Reporting Practices

SDSU has validated that it maintains reporting protocols for a variety of situations, depending on the concern raised. In addition, the process for investigation varies based upon employment relationship, conduct reported, and student status. Beginning in fall 2019, SDSU added “First Amendment/Intellectual Diversity” as a report/complaint category in its online reporting portal, Lighthouse, in which reports may be submitted anonymously.

The Rabbit Report is a weekly student publication sent to all students from the SDSU Students’ Association while classes are in session, includes a reporting section with links to reporting procedures for a variety of concerns, including anonymous reporting options. In addition, the monthly HR Newsletter sent electronically to all SDSU employees includes information on how to report concerns, including anonymous reporting options. Below, in the Existing Resources & Policies section, a comprehensive list of reporting protocols is provided.

Speakers and Events

Speakers:

Currently, SDSU promotes student organization speakers and events through Jacks Club Hub, an online tool designed for student organizations to promote their organization and their programming. In addition, events are promoted through an intranet portal, InsideState, to all SDSU employees.

A listing of the 577 speakers hosted by SDSU can be found in the attached spreadsheet.

Events:

The Office of Diversity, Inclusion, Equity and Access references the promotion of freedom of speech on our website under the programming section. It states:

“SDSU is a public university with a vibrant community of students, faculty, staff and administrators. From time to time, members of the university community may host events or invite speakers to campus who hold and espouse views contrary to our institutional values. We cannot intrude upon the constitutionally protected right of individual members of the University community to hold or sponsor those who hold different views. While we may disagree with one another's convictions, higher education is a community of scholars who work within the marketplace of ideas; as such, we must respect the rights of individuals to express their views. The creation of public forums for expression of such ideas, which many in our community find objectionable, is not an endorsement of those ideas."

Training Sessions for University Employees and Students

The SDSU Office of General Counsel provided training sessions regarding the First Amendment and intellectual diversity to at least 400 individuals in the campus community between November 1, 2019 to October 31, 2020. A list of completed training sessions, as well as the approximate number of attendees for each session, is included in this section. Additionally, on July 24, 2020, the SDSU Office of General Counsel posted a link to a pre-recorded training presentation regarding the First Amendment on SDSU's business portal, InsideState. To date, there have been 165 views of the training presentation through InsideState. Mandatory bystander training was also provided to freshmen students as part of campus onboarding, and students were informed of how to report concerns on a wide variety of topics. Additional sessions are scheduled for the future.

Additionally, SDSU implemented training for all new students entering the University beginning this fall, excluding dual credit students, titled "Diversity Awareness Training" through our existing SDBOR contract with Vector Solutions for online training resources. The training was communicated to new students along with training on the following topics: Title IX, COVID-19, and Alcohol and Other Drugs. Diversity is a core value at SDSU and this training provides students with an awareness of how a diverse student body, as well as diverse faculty and staff members, strengthen our campus and the educational opportunities at SDSU. The training focuses on a broad definition of diversity beginning with an introduction to the SDSU Core Values. This training takes students approximately 20 minutes to complete and introduces them to the value of interacting with and learning from individuals with differing viewpoints, backgrounds, and beliefs and goes beyond the typical categories of diversity such as race and gender. Included in the resources section of this training is the SDBOR Commitment to Freedom of Expression policy as well as links to other applicable policies and how to report concerns.

Academic and Other Activities

Course syllabi are required by SDSU Course Syllabus Policy 2:3 to have the following statement included and this was communicated during this period:

Freedom in Learning Statement: Students are responsible for learning the content of any course of study in which they are enrolled. Under Board of Regents and University policy, student academic performance shall be evaluated solely on an academic basis and students should be free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any courses of study. Students who believe that an academic evaluation is unrelated to academic standards but is related instead to judgment of their personal opinion or conduct should first contact the instructor of the course. If the student remains unsatisfied, the student may contact the Department Head, Dean, or both, of the college which offers the class to initiate a review of the evaluation.

SDSU validated that it offers the System General Education Requirements (SGRs) courses in communication, mathematics, and sciences. There is an array of elective courses within the requirements for Social Sciences and Arts and Humanities, which provide an awareness of the histories and psycho-social, economic, and political structures, as well as an understanding of the contributions of diverse cultures. Course offerings to meet the Social Sciences elective include, but are not limited to, American Indian Studies, Anthropology, Human Geography, United States History, American Government, American Political Issues, Political Ideologies, State and Local Government, and Sociology of Rural America. Course offerings to meet the Arts and Humanities elective include, but are not limited to, American Indian Studies, World Civilization, Western Civilization, Lakota, Gospels, and Rise of American Indian Activism.

USD

After reviewing our campus wide effort and policies for the initial Free Speech and Intellectual Diversity report, USD spent a significant amount of time talking with FIRE (Foundation for Individual Rights in Education) and the American Council of Trustees and used the content of those conversations to develop trainings and make policy changes to help guide our path forward in supporting Free Speech and Intellectual Diversity. The items listed in this year's report focus on initiatives taken during this reporting period rather than an exhaustive list of all existing efforts. Initiatives worth noting are:

- USD's anonymous complaint process remains intact and is utilized by students, faculty and staff.
- USD continues to provide mandatory student orientation on free speech and intellectual diversity for all incoming first-year students.
- USD continues to provide educational sessions on free speech and intellectual diversity to student organizations.
- USD continues to include a freedom in learning statement in all course syllabi.
- USD continues to offer its Classical Humanities minor, which provides students with an understanding of how the legacy of the Greeks and Romans influences nearly every aspect of contemporary culture.
- USD continues to offer its Civil Leadership Studies minor through the W.O. Farber Center for Civic Leadership, whose mission is to prepare students and help communities to face difficult public problems in a manner consistent with constitutional values.
- USD continues to host the recently acquired Chiesman Center for Democracy, which supports research and civic education activities addressing on-going challenges to American democracy and is dedicated to facilitating public dialogue, active civic engagement and the promotion of civic values.

USD's General Counsel was able to do considerable work in this area. Those examples include:

- Working with FIRE to clarify and improve policies to achieve "green light" ratings on several policies previously given a "yellow light" rating.
- Developing First Amendment training for social medial coordinators
- Incorporating Free Speech and Intellectual Diversity sections into training for employee search committee members

- Working on developing/enhance training on Free Speech and Intellectual Diversity within the new hire orientation training program.

USD added an interdisciplinary major and minor in Legal Studies. The major allows students to explore the history and impact of the law, its underlying theoretical and philosophical framework, and the political, economic and cultural forces that affect its development.

(2) Events or occurrences that impeded intellectual diversity and the free exchange of ideas, or complaints received by campuses.

1/23/2020	Geek Speak: Tim Steckline - "Gates without Walls: An Anarchist's Appeal for Open Borders"	Tim Steckline - "Gates without Walls: An Anarchist's Appeal for Open Borders" A gate normally functions as a way in or out of a perimeter. But from St. Louis to San Francisco, and from El Paso to Edmonton people have constructed Gates without Walls. These gates stand freely, with no walls to direct converging traffic: these gates are symbolic of an Open Invitation. Free-standing gates can be easily circumvented, so their symbolism makes them less than functional. The American West has promoted gates without walls through much of its long tradition. The Gateway Arch in St. Louis is replicated in the Roosevelt Arch at the North Entrance to Yellowstone, and both are echoed by the Golden Gate. The counter impulse in our West is a desire to enclose, whether with forts or barb wire or survey lines or camp fences or reservation boundaries or national borders. These can become Walls without Gates, for they are designed to resist escapes. The West has long promised gates but it has erected walls. It may be time to live up to the ideals of the West, to the Gates of Open Invitation. This is an argument for open borders, something many are accused of proposing but few actually defend, and fewer defend without apology. Calls for the erection of walls without gates are anti-human, anti-organic, and anti-aesthetic. Life should move about freely.	University Honors Program	Provided room, faculty member to present and personnel to staff the event.	Political Science

2/25/2020	Humanities and Social Science Brown Bag Series: The Future: Utopia or Dystopia	Dr. Olivia Burgess	Humanities/Social Science	Room	Science/Technology/Society
2/25/2020	Computer-accelerated discovery of advanced porous crystals: Are we there yet?	Prof. Diego Gómez-Gualdrón, Department of Chemical and Biological Engineering Colorado School of Mines	Chemical and Biological Engineering	Room	Science/Engineering
2/26/2020	Electroweak Probes of the Nucleus and the Era of Precision Neutrino Physics	Dr. Daniel Ruterbories, University of Rochester SDSMT PHYS faculty candidate	Physics	Room	Science/Engineering
2/26/2020	Scaling of Fluvial Morphologies of Remotely Classified Systems across Ecoregions and Continents	John Costello, CEE PhD Candidate	Civil and Environmental Engineering	Room	Science/Engineering
2/26/2020	Modeling Low Impact Development (LID) Practices Using Storm Water Management Model (SWMM) and Triple Bottom Line Cost Benefit Analysis (TBL-CBA) Tool	Jason Phillips, CEE PhD Candidate	Civil and Environmental Engineering	Room	Science/Engineering
2/27/2020	All-solid-state Li-ion battery: the technology of better, lighter, and more powerful batteries	Dr. Abu Md Numan-Al-Mobin	Electrical Engineering	Room	Engineering
2/27/2020	3D Live-Cell Imaging by Lattice Light-Sheet Microscopy	Dr. Robert Anderson, Nanoscience and Nanoengineering, SDSM&T	Nano Science and Engineering	Room	Science/Engineering
2/27/2020	2020 Student Art Show	Campus Community Event	Apex Galleries	Room	Arts

2/28/2020	Vision for the future of teaching and research in the CEE department.	Dr. Min Liu, CEE Department Head Candidate	Civil and Environmental Engineering	Room	Education/Civil and Environmental Engineering
2/28/2020	An Introduction to the Geology and Biology of the Dry Valley Region, Antarctica	Dr. Kelli A. McCormick, SDSMT-MEM	GEOLOGY/PALEO	Room	Geology
3/2/2020	CALL FOR SPEAKERS: TEDxRapidCity conference	Dr. Adam Piper, TedxRapid City 2020 Co-lead Organizer	Campus Community		Science/Engineering
3/4/2020	Observational Analysis of a Surface-based Bow Echo Transition to Elevated Convection Over Complex Terrain	Amanda Penning, AES Masters Student SDSMT	Civil and Environmental Engineering	Room	Science/Engineering
3/4/2020	Exploring the neutrino physics with the Deep Underground Neutrino Experiment	Physics Faculty Candidate Colloquium, Dr. Jingbo Wang University of California, Davis	Physics	Room	Science/Engineering
3/5/2020	A Vision on the Future of Pearson Chair Program in Materials Energy Research: Towards an internationally recognized materials energy program concerned with innovative research, education and technology implementation	Dr. Abdel Salam H. Makhlof, Professor, Central Metallurgical Research and Development Institute; Vice President, Integrated Mechanical Material Corrosion Consulting	Mechanical Engineering	Room	Engineering
3/5/2020	Seagate	Greg Kittilson, Senior Director of Engineering at Seagate	SDSM&T Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) and Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineering (IEEE) Student Chapters	Room	Engineering
3/5/2020	Volumetric Imaging of Macrophage Activity by Lattice Light-Sheet Microscopy	Brandon Scott, PhD Nanoscience and Nanoengineering, SDSM&T	Nano Science and Engineering	Room	Science/Engineering
3/5/2020	Innovative methods to Recover and Upgrade the Critical Elements from Low-Grade Resources	Dr. Prashant Sarswat - Research Associate Professor, Metallurgical Engineering University of Utah	Materials and Metallurgical Engineering	Room	Engineering
3/6/2020	Vision for the future of teaching and research in the CEE department.	Dr. Halil Ceylan, CEE department head candidate	Civil and Environmental Engineering	Room	Education/Civil and Environmental Engineering
3/7/2020	Cracker Barrel	State Legislators	Community Event/General Public	Room	Politics
3/16/2020	Application of Extractive Metallurgy Principles for the Recycling of Advanced Materials	Dr. Brett Carlson, Swansea University UK	Materials and Metallurgical Engineering	Room	Engineering

3/18/2020	CALL FOR SPEAKERS: SD DENR's 32nd Annual Environmental & Ground Water Quality Conference	Thomas V. Durkin, CPG Deputy Director, South Dakota Space Grant Consortium - SD School of Mines & Technology	Campus Community		Science/Engineering
3/18/2020	Effects of strong charge correlation in novel materials: static properties and ultrafast charge dynamics	Dr. Volodymyr Turkowski, University of Central Florida	Physics	Room	Science/Engineering
3/19/2020	CALL FOR SPEAKERS: SD DENR's 32nd Annual Environmental & Ground Water Quality Conference	Thomas V. Durkin, CPG Deputy Director, South Dakota Space Grant Consortium - SD School of Mines & Technology	Campus Community		Science/Engineering
3/19/2020	Renewable Energy Speaker Series	Dr. Martin Keller, Director of NREL	LEAP/Sustainability Committee	Room	Science/Engineering
3/21/2020	WiSE GTM Luncheon	WiSE Mentors	WiSE	Room
3/25/2020	Atomistic modeling of cyclic loading and heat treatment processes for tuning the mechanical properties of amorphous alloys	Dr. Nikolai Priezjev, Wright State University, SDSMT PHYS Faculty Candidate	Physics	Zoom Meeting	Science/Engineering
3/26/2020	Applications of IoT in Smart City	Dr. Kaamran Raahemifar, SDSMT Mechanical Engineering Faculty Candidate for the Pearson Chair	Mechanical Engineering	Zoom Meeting	Engineering

10/1/2020	Restorative Discipline Before Punitive Damages	Pat Hubert, SD PBIS Coordinator, Northwest Area Schools, Consequences for inappropriate or unruly behavior are part of life. Students have to learn that they can't get away with that sort of behavior. They won't be able to pull that stuff when they get a job! What is fair? What is just? How will you discipline students for inappropriate behavior in a virtual environment? These are all question on the forefront of the education dialog today. This session will introduce the Restorative Discipline model for school consequences. Discuss the merits and what it looks like in practice.	Center for the Prevention of Child Maltreatment, Community Response to Child Abuse Conference	Personnel to organize conference, funding	CPCM

10/1/2020	The Importance of Trauma-Informed Community Care and Reform in Criminal Justice	Terry Liggins, The Hurdle of Life Coach Founder, Justice is not only the decisions that occur in courtrooms and the spirit in which they are made; justice lives and breathes in our day to day interactions as neighbors, co-workers, friends and family members. When we fail in these roles individually, the justice we call forth in the courts and prisons must too be enacted in our homes, communities, and workplaces. This session will provide awareness and understanding of trauma and its impact, understanding of how involvement with the criminal justice system can exacerbate trauma, and explore how a trauma-informed care approach to criminal justice can be utilized to avoid re-traumatization, increase safety for all, support recovery and decrease recidivism.	Center for the Prevention of Child Maltreatment, Community Response to Child Abuse Conference	Personnel to organize conference, funding	CPCM

10/30/2020	Virtual Brown Bag Lunch via Zoom "Looking Ahead to Election Day: What Do the Polls Show?"	Friday's Virtual Brown Bag Lunch will be the last before the presidential election on November 3rd. With election day so near, the usual questions take on greater importance. How confident can we be in the polls and prediction models? Who do we think will win the presidency--and when can we expect to know the results? Will the Republicans retain control of the Senate? In this most unusual election season, can we anticipate any last-minute surprises? Join us to gaze into the crystal ball. As always, Professor Ed Gerrish will lead the discussion. Bring a lunch, bring a friend, and join us on Zoom for what promises to be an enlightening discussion.	Arts & Sciences		Political Science
