

News ▾

Weather ▾

Sports ▾

Watch ▾

KELOLAND Living ▾

Employment

Automall

More ▾

Search

Pre-production model with options shown

Mazda USA

Learn More >

LOCAL NEWS

Rhoden calls for 'fresh start' with tribes, 'civility'

by: Dan Santella
Posted: Jan 28, 2025 / 06:09 PM CST
Updated: Jan 28, 2025 / 08:27 PM CST

SHARE

SIoux FALLS, S.D. (KELO) — South Dakota Gov. Larry Rhoden's address to lawmakers Tuesday was an autobiographical opportunity for the soon-to-be 66-year-old rancher.

"Even today, I'm still happiest when I'm working with my hands," Rhoden said. "It's how I relax. When I get home, I head to the shop, and I go to work. I make branding irons and custom tools for ranching, among many other things."

10 Commandments in school bill narrowly passes Senate >

The man who has served as majority leader, assistant majority leader, majority whip and lieutenant governor laid out his political philosophy as well as one which could have been part of a speech delivered

LIQUID ENERGY PIPELINE ASSOCIATION

Pipelines Benefit South Dakota:
good jobs, economic growth,
energy innovation.

LEARN MORE

Skip Ad ▶

Pipelines Benefit South Dakota:
good jobs, economic growth,
energy innovation. Learn more >

Discover VERMILLION South Dakota

2024 VISITOR'S GUIDE

VERMILLION