- (a) Permitted uses. In a civil case involving a claim for relief based on a party's alleged sexual assault or child molestation, the court may admit evidence that the party was found to have committed any other sexual assault or child molestation. The evidence may be considered as provided in Senate Bill 97 and Senate Bill 98, if enacted by the Ninety-Ninth Session of the South Dakota Legislature.
- (b) Disclosure to the opponent. If a party intends to offer this evidence, the party must disclose it to the party against whom it will be offered, including witnesses' statements or a summary of the expected testimony. The party must do so at least fifteen days before trial or at a later time that the court allows for good cause.
- (c) Effect on other rules. This rule does not limit the admission or consideration of evidence under any other rule.
